New Cabin Cruiser Affords A. J. O'Briens Summer Fun

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. O'Brien and their daughters, Joyce and Joan, have been especially enjoying this summer on their new cabin cruiser, the Foresome.

From their boat on the Clinton river, Mrs. O'Brien and the girls have been making short trips to Strawberry Island and Metropolitan Beach on their own.

Sleeping six, the new craft will carry the family on a cruising vacation, and with its navigator, well family aboard, O'Brien will probably enjoy sitting back and letting them do the work.

Welcome to the James C. Stewarts who recently moved into their new home at 2645 Lathrup from Glen Ellyn, Ill.

Their arrival increases the Lathrup younger set by four. Patricia, 12; Jimmy, 8; Loretta, 7 and Eddie, 4.

Pat, who loves horses and riding, found that Sharon Fleischer, just across the road, shares her interest. The two girls have been spending as much time as their mothers will permit at Outland's Riding stables this summer.

Stewart, who enjoys golf but hasn't found enough free time for it this summer, vice president of the Hitchcock Publishing Company.

Mrs. J. W. Andrews of Golden-gate drive gave a welcome home luncheon for Mrs. K. M. Farnum and Mrs. F. W. Benter on July 15, when Mrs. Farnum returned from Bar Harbor, Me., and Mrs. Benter from California.

Other guests were Mrs. R. H. Koppin, Mrs. C. J. Bush, Mrs. B. C. Batts, Mrs. R. J. Gannon, Mrs. F. A. Byington, Mrs. C. R. Mesinger, Mrs. E. W. Shaver, and Mrs. Peter Mondy.

FAREWELL PARTY Mrs. R. L. Stephenson of Saratoga was hostess at a party at Birmingham Country club given in honor of Mrs. Harry Dale, who is moving to Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert Steger, Mrs. Albert Cattell, Mrs. John Rose, Mrs. Kenneth Farnum, Mrs. Elmer Shaver, Mrs. Benjamin Butts, Mrs. Gordon Kingsbury, Mrs. Harold Nash, Mrs. Vern Biker, Mrs. Harold Becker, Mrs. Robert Gordon and Mrs. L. R. Kappler were guests.

Me and Mrs. S. I. Goodale, Jr. of Wiltshire and their family, Gigi, Stephen and Gloria, have a visitor, Goodale's mother, Mrs. S. L. Goodale, Sr. from Pittsburgh, Pa., who is spending some time with them.

Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cannon of Sunset drive, and their family, returned from a two-week vacation at Black Lake near Cheboygan, Cannon's old roommate, James House, and his family, of Bay City, spent some time with them there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sampson of Sunset boulevard are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. George Murphy, her two children, and Mrs. Sampson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tompkins, in their home. Mrs. Murphy is staying with her parents while her husband, who is stationed at Sampson Air Force base, Geneva, N. Y., attends school in Denver. The Tompkins are also from New York.

A stag party was hosted by Dick Kappler July 13 in honor of Bill Schippel, who was celebrating his 40th birthday. Larry Hedlund, Tom France, and Kent Macken were on hand to join in the fun. Bill's twin, Dick, "celebrated" at Great Lakes naval base.

STUDY BALLET Jean Norton and Carol Fleming are spending two or three

Tom MacCracken, who graduated from Assumption school in Windsor, Ont., in June is working for the Barton-Males company this summer. Working in the construction business, Tom hopes to gain experience for the civil engineering course he starts at the University of Detroit in the Fall.

Kathleen, Gael and Mary Dorian Osborne, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Osborne of Sunset boulevard, are spending three weeks at Dominican camp on Kelleys Island in Lake Erie. The camp is operated by the Dominican Sisters.

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Caddell of San Jose boulevard and their children, Tom, Johnnie and Kathy, of Littleton, Mass., and Hildegard Sievers of Madfield, Germany.

Major and Mrs. Reinecke and the youngsters returned to the states early in the year after a three-year tour in the army at Frankfurt, Germany. The children speak German well, and Kathy, who is almost five, finds it less difficult than English. The Reineckes were former neighbors of the Caddells in Detroit.

Off for a week of substitute counselling, Sue Herrick, Southfield high school senior, left Saturday for Camp Tellico, which is sponsored by the community church.

Looking forward to good swimming and boating, Carol Graveline left last Friday with her aunt, Miss Grace Graveline, for a two-week stay at Wisconsin Lodge on Lake Rousseau, Mukoka, Ont.

Neighbors on Beechwood gathered last week to say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Studders, before the Studders and their children, Linda, Gail and Jimmie, left East Beverly.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Young opened their home for the party and guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Penny, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atkin and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Byer.

The Studders are living temporarily in a cottage on Sandy Point near Caswellville while awaiting the completion of their new home in Alma.

Kathy Miller also gave a farewell luncheon for Gail and Linda Studders last week. Barbara Byer was one of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones are new neighbors, living at 31710 Glenoe. The Joneses, who are from San Francisco, Calif., lived on Lincoln st. in Birmingham before moving to their new home here.

They have two children, Howard, 3, and Patty, 1, and are members of Kirk in the Hills church. Jones is with the John Hancock Life Insurance company.

The Joneses purchased their home from Mrs. John L. Lundberg who, with her daughter, Ann, and son, Larry, moved to Pompano Beach, Fla., last Friday.
