

Students from Europe Feted By Local Hosts

WING LAKE — Foreign exchange students, boys of 16 and 17, were the guests of two Wing Lake families for two days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peiffer, Thurber, entertained Peika Kause of Finland and Eckhart Marney of Germany and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding, Worthington, entertained Osman Edin of Istanbul, Turkey, and John Rogers of Southampton, England.

The first evening, the two families held a "glorified hot dog" feast in the Harding yard, and later four neighborhood girls were invited to spend the evening as guests of the exchange students. They were Marilyn Carroll, Micky Carroll, Kay Robinson and Jackie Little.

Next day the boys visited the Dodge plant, the Detroit News and two TV stations. In the evening they went for a swim and then off to the dance at the Birmingham Community house.

The following day the Peiffers and Hardings entertained them at lunch at Iveson Gables and then took them on a tour of Cranbrook Osman Edin of Istanbul, Turkey, and John Rogers of Southampton, area.

27 WNFG Members at Brunch Honoring Mrs. Ed Carroll

Friday morning the home of Mrs. Ralph Darling, Sunningdale, was the scene of a brunch in honor of Mrs. Edward Carroll, Thurber road, who will be moving to Chicago, July 31.

The 27 guests were members of the Wing Lake branch of the WNFG. Mrs. Carroll is a charter member of this branch, having served from its beginning, two years ago, as program chairman.

Blueberry muffins and coffee were served with Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Wing Lake road pouring. A gift of a linen tablecloth was presented to Mrs. Carroll. Each guest signed her name on the cloth so Mrs. Carroll can later embroider each name for a lasting remembrance.

This Sunday Carol Gedelman and James Eschardt of Wing Lake Farms will leave for a two-week stay at camp Michawana on Long Lake near Hastings. Carol and James attended camp Michawana last year, too. Accompanying them for a one-week stay will be James' cousin, Louis Paul of Detroit.

Carol, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gedelman, Cherokee road, recently entertained classmates at a Friday night dinner of sloppy joes, watermelon and cokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Engel, Wing Lake road, are the parents of right-hand Ross John, their fourth boy, born July 11.

Mrs. Edna G. O'Neil, Wing Lake road, entertained Miss Mary Arnold, Detroit, as her weekend guest recently. Saturday evening was spent at dinner at Meadowbrook Country club.

FOURTH BIRTHDAY

The fourth birthday of Sandra Ahrens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ahrens, Crabtree road, was celebrated with two parties before it actually arrived last Monday.

On Saturday, Sandra had as guests Terri Carter, Charles Hammond, Tommy Rankin, Roberta Hickson, all of Foxcroft, Pam Lieb, and Christine Zehender, both of Birmingham and Claudia Semar, Beverly Hills.

Sandra was feted Sunday with a family dinner party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Magill, Wilshire drive, Detroit. Guests were her other grandparents, Mrs. Fred Ahrens of Foxcroft, and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George Green of Grosse Pointe and Carol Robertson of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Elbert Cain of Grosse Pointe, aunt of Mrs. Thomas Stewart, Sunningdale, has been the house guest for the past week of Dr. and Mrs. Stewart. She and Mrs. Stewart spent several days doing antique shops together.

Thursday evening they attended the buffet dinner at Forest Lake country club. Later with the Albert Ludwig, Sheringham and several couples from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills, they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Benschoter, Labster road at a splash party in the hosts' pool.

BUSY HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw, Sheringham have been busy hosts this past week. Mrs. Shaw's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tolle of South Bend stopped for the weekend recently en route to New York.

With them were two German girls, foreign exchange students, one of whom they had living with them during the past year and the other who had been with friends of the Tolle's during the year. The girls graduated this June from South Bend High school and the Tolle's were taking them to N.Y. to put them on the boat for Germany.

A recent over-night guest of the Shaws was Bud Pente of Honolulu, Hawaii. He is with the Hawaiian telephone Co. and became a friend of the Shaws during their last summer's vacation on the island.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Shaw gave a luncheon at her home on Sheringham. Guests were Mrs. Florence Rogart, visiting here from Phoenix, Arizona; Mr. Harry Walsh of Bloomfield Village; Mrs. P. C. Walrath of Birmingham and Mrs. Fred Ball, Wing Lake.

Newcomers to Foxcroft are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Caves of Lantern Lane, formerly of Dearborn.

The Caves have one son, Thomas

His Challenge Went Unaccepted

John V. Nahabedian of Walnut Lake, unsuccessful candidate for the Birmingham board of education, has failed to get a reply to his challenge of three weeks ago issued to board of education members, he said this week.

Nahabedian offered to debate any planks in his election platform which any board or citizens committee members felt were "misleading and with false implications."

Oil Treatment Set For 9 City Streets

Confirmation hearings for oil treatment of several Birmingham streets have been set for Aug. 1 by city commissioners.

Approved for light oil at Monday's meeting were Grant from Catalpa to 14 Mile; Hazel, Rowers and Haynes from Columbia to Eton.

Oil mix and seal is slated for Cedar, Lincoln to Catalpa; Catalpa, Pierce to Grant; Southlawn, Pierce to Edgewood; Westchester, Maple to Mizvale, and Purdy, Dallas to Frank.
