Kirk-in-the-Hills Art Festival Is Being Organized for September

The Kirk In The Hills Annual Outdoor Art Festival will be held this year from Thursday, Sept. 15, through Saturday, Sept. 17.

Open to all artists, both professional and amateur, the show last year had over 1,000 entries, nearly the Outdoor Art Festival has met 500 in the art's field, watercolorists, with such success and enthusiasm graphic arts and sculptors, and states Peter J. Roberts, general chairman, "that the Kirk now annually offers its beautiful grounds to foster the growing appreciation of art and nature in the same spirit in which the church offers the community a place to worship."

ALTHOUGH it is a non-jury exhibition, over $1,000 in prizes are offered for outstanding works. Exhibits will be offered for sale.

The exhibits will be open to the public from 1 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. during the three days of the show with guided tours of the church scheduled from 2 to 6 each day.

Providing additional pleasure to visitors, an organ recital at 4 p.m. in the church chapel and a 15 minute carillon recital at 5 p.m. have been scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

ENTRY BLANKS for the show may be obtained from the art festival committee by writing or telephoning.

Oil, watercolor, or drawings should be framed and entries should be received, prepaid, between Aug. 25 and Sept. 6.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Quartermore Opens Aug. 3 By Sisters

Quartermore, home of the J. Phillip Moses on East Long Lake drive, will be the scene of the membership drive tea of the Woman's Association of the Detroit Symphony on Aug. 3.

Mrs. Moses and her sister, Mrs. James Merriam Barnes of Detroit, will be sharing hostess duties for the event.

Their parents, the Anthony Mallows of Detroit, have been generous contributors to the Detroit Symphony, according to the membership chairman planning the event, Mrs. Arvin Leslie Wheaton of Detroit.

LOCALITES on the hostess committee for the 2 to 4:30 p.m. event include Mrs. William Reister of Avon, Mrs. Lloyd Grinnell of Latham and Mrs. Marlin Campbell of Gelfew.

Starting towards the association's hope for 500 new members this year, Mrs. Wheaton has said that some 200 members are expected to be added at the Aug. 3 event.

The woman's association contributes $10,000 in addition to a quarter of its dues each year towards maintenance of the symphony.

They co-sponsor with the Junior League a children's symphony concert once a year. Nearly 40,000 children attend that event.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.
