

Plunge Into Lagoon (With Auto) Injures Two Area Residents

A Bloomfield township motorist and his passenger from Birmingham, were injured Saturday when their car went out of control on Commerce road in Orchard Lake, plunged over an embankment and uprooted a tree before crashing into a shallow lagoon, according to Orchard Lake Police Chief Elmer Peters.

Injured were the driver, William Metibbon, 26, of 3761 Lincoln, who received elbow and knee cuts, and Joseph O'Donnell, 26, of 794 Lakeview. They were treated at St. Joseph Mercy hospital.

McGibben told police he was traveling east on Commerce at 30 miles per hour, when he lost control of his auto on what Peters, in the Want Ad section of The Birmingham Eccentric,

Reservists Meet In New Quarters

The 9606th air reserve squadron will hold their regular meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the unit's new headquarters at 1231 South Main street in Royal Oak. The program will consist of an intelligence briefing and an air force training lecture. Captain Lee Kenney, squadron commander, will give information concerning the new quarters and reservists met present at the last meeting will receive new training manuals from training officer Captain Charles Hamsey.

To Save $10,000 On Rink Piping

The Eton Park ice skating rink, expected to be ready for use November 1, will have plastic pipe installations, rather than iron installations, at a substantial $10,000 saving, it was decided by the city commission Monday night.

According to the recommendation made in a letter from the city engineer, plastic pipe installation is considered favorable. Present schedule of the skating rink construction calls for taking bus on August 10.
