

Fete Dolores Geisler 'Ere Her Wedding

Miss Dolores Geisler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Geisler, Wing Lake road, will become the bride of Leo J. Rengers of Detroit on August 6. She has been feted recently with several showers.

Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Geisler, classmates throughout their girlhood, have six and seven children respectively, with the children's ages matching to within two days and two months.

At the home of Mrs. James Cumiskey and daughter, Alicia, of Birmingham on July 20, Dolores was again honored with an evening buffet and linen shower. The 20 guests were her school friends.

The first, with personal gifts being opened after a luncheon, was given by Mrs. James Stevens of Whiteoak, Detroit, with guests from the Stevens and Geisler families.

MRS. STEVEN J. Kloonan and daughter, Mary Sue Dean of Pontiac gave Dolores on July 9 a dinner and miscellaneous shower.

Another evening buffet and miscellaneous shower was given by Dolores' cousin, Patricia Shain of Detroit last Tuesday. Family and relatives were the guests.

Northern Spots Lure Village Families for Holiday Fun

Many Villagers have deserted their homes temporarily for cool vacation spots in Northern Michigan or for trips aboard their yachts.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Boyd of 1020 North Cranbrook are vacationing in Charlevoix, at the Watson's Terrace Beach resort. Their friends, the Vincent Van Fleets of 3019 North Cranbrook recently returned from there.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Terry and their son, Bob, of Half Moon road recently returned from a three week's cruise of the Great Lakes and northern Michigan in their yacht, the "Terry-go-Round".

The West Galloglys of 3560 Wooddale court are vacationing in northern Michigan. Also up north at Higgins lake are Mrs. Lester Griem of 724 Williamsbury and her daughter, Lynn.

On July 23, the Reed Jenkins of North Cranbrook entertained the Vincent Van Fleets of 3019 North Cranbrook and the Paul Hyman of 1028 Yarnmouth at a dinner party.

Orchard Lake Country club was the scene July 22 of the 175 Club tournament. The three participating clubs were Orchard Lake, Pine Lake and Oakland Hills.

Members and players from the Village winning events include Jeff Crawford in the boys 15 and under class, his brother, Larry, in the boys 13 and under class, and Linda Rakas in the class for girls 15 and under.

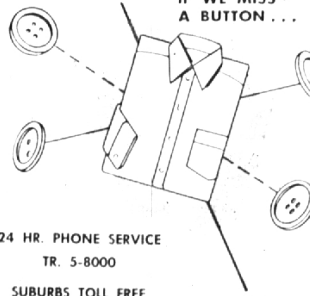

When Ned Bearden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judge W. Bearden of 2109 Tutonham, celebrated his 21st birthday July 23, at a party in his home, Phi Deltis from all over the country were among the guests. Ned is a Phi Delta Theta and a junior at Michigan State university.

Diene Morrison and Jeannie Yeager of the Berkshires gave a party the afternoon of July 23, at Diane's home for some of the 15th-graders to be at the Bloomfield Village school.

Guests were Jerry Purdy, Kenny Pool, Stanley Cutter, Chris Palmer and Steve Bartholomew.

Golf, Dine, Dance At BCC Saturday

One of Birmingham country club's gala social events of the year will be noted Saturday evening when the 11th annual invitational dinner dance is held.

With dinner from 7:30 p.m. and dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., the informal affair will have invited guests from all area country and golf clubs.

Early reservations have been made for Mr. and Mrs. Drowl Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Laffoon, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Nick, Mr. and Mrs. S. Elting Dubois and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson.

The social committee, headed by Mrs. Manuel F. Diaz and Mrs. Theodore F. Chirk, will be hosts of the evening.

Have You Met

The Richard C. Smiths, 1798 Bates? The Smiths have a 10-month-old son, Robert, and both attend the University of Michigan. The Smiths are former Detroiters, and Robert's parents are the Walter Smiths of Bloomfield.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

PATIO PARTY

The Wayne M. Spades of 575 Hamilton gave a small after-dinner party July 22 at the University of Michigan. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Mow of 654 Overhill, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jackson, Jr. of 500 Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bauer of 3140 Broadway and Mrs. Fred Erb of 3121 Broadway.
