MARGIE MOORE MI 4-7362

Area Welcomes Four New Families as Neighbors

The welcome mat is out at Graceland for four new families from near and far, two of them newly married couples.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hayes and their son, Robert, 1, formerly of Evanston, Ill., are now living at 1750 Graceland road.

A native of Kenilworth, Ill., Hayes is an accountant trained with the Ford Motor Co. He attended the Northwestern University Graduate commerce school, Miami University and De Pauw university. His favorite hobbies are bridge, reading and golf. Mrs. Hayes is a native of Wilmette, Ill., and is also an alumna of Miami University. She enjoys sewing and knitting, and likes to play bridge.

Newcomers Mr. and Mrs. H. V. King are now settled at 1782 Graceland road. Formerly of Lansing, King has a managerial position with the Chrysler motor corp. Swimming and tennis are his hobbies and Mrs. King, who is from Cross Pointe, also likes tennis and swimming. She will teach third grade at the Pembroke school this fall. Both Mr. and Mrs. King attended Michigan State university.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Lee Douglas Johnson recently moved to 1724 Graceland road. Johnson hails from Flint and is a chemical engineer for the U. S. Rubber company. An alumna of Michigan State university he likes all outdoor sports and is a golf enthusiast. Mrs. Johnson, a native of Almont, who attended Michigan State, prefers golf and swimming as hobbies.

NEWLYWEDS HERE

The newlyweds at 1750 Graceland road are Mr. and Mrs. A. Bruce Stahl, formerly of Houston, Texas. Stahl is a sales engineer for the Union Carbide and Carbon corp.

Golden Wedding Noted by Couple

Memories of wedding bells rang through the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Johnson, 479 Merrill Sunday, as the couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Natives of Birmingham, they were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Robinson, Big Beaver road, July 19, 1905.

About a hundred friends and relatives visited the couple Sunday, a surprise guest being their granddaughter, Mrs. Richard Porter who flew here from her home in Herlong, Calif.

Other special guests included parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Galloway of Glasgow.

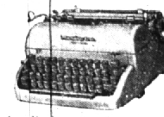

The Ralph Redmonds of Graceland court gave a farewell party for natives of Birmingham, Mrs. J. McCarthy Friday evening. Formerly of Graceland the McCarthys are now getting settled in their new home out West Maple way. At the buffet supper were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Fay, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Parker, James Mourkas, of Graceland, Gordon Lichtwardt, of Royal Oak and James Kennedy of Midland, weekend houseguest of the Parkers.

their wedding attendants, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Donaldson of Romeo. Mrs. Joseph Hauser, both of Birmingham. The Johnsons have two daughters.

St. Peters Lutheran church in East Detroit was the setting for the candle-light rites which united Patricia Hall and Kurt J. Schoner on July 8.

Hall-Schoner Vows Exchanged in Detroit

White gladioli and ferns decorated the altar for the candlelight service which united Patricia, Alice Hall and Kurt John Schoner on July 8.

The Rev. William O. Lietz performed the ceremony at the St. Peters Lutheran church in East Detroit at 8 p.m. before 200 guests.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hall of 873 Watkins. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schoner of Ferndale.

THE FLOOR-LENGTH bridal gown was fashioned with a scooped neck and long sleeves tapering into a "v" point. Thirty yards of net with lace inserts formed the skirt. A crown head piece held Patricia's lace-edged net veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Charlotte Hall, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor. She wore a strapless dress of turquoise crystalaette with a matching jacket and ruffled headpiece and carried yellow tea roses.

Marge Dostie, the bridesmaid, wore an identical ensemble in shrimp-colored crystalaette and carried tallman roses.

THE FLOWER GIRLS, Christine Reichert, the groom's niece, and Lynn Dugger, were off-the-shoulder shrimp-colored crystalaette dresses with matching ruffled headpieces and carried yellow baskets of red rose petals.

Roy Warwick was the best man. Seating the guests were Noel Lomon, George Reichert, the groom's brother-in-law, and Fred T. Hall, the bride's brother.

The bride's mother wore a v-neck, sleeveless dress of Dior blue. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress. Both had corsages of yellow tea roses.

A reception at the Star ballroom in Fraser, Mich., followed the ceremony.

The couple left after the reception for a two week wedding trip in northern Michigan. They will make their home in Ferndale.
