ilton road, Gamma chapter at Northwestern university, and Mrs. William C. Gidley of Waddington road, Alpha Omega Alpha alumnae chapter national meeting. Miss Burroughs took part in a panel discussion on Scholarship and furnished the music for the initiation ceremony. Sidney McNary took part in a skit which received honorable mention on Stunt Night.

CAR Unit Reviews Past Year; Lists New Activities

An inter-county picnic at Kensington Park on July 31 has been announced to members of the Calappa Amateur Radio society.

CARS, in its July "scoop sheet" listed its 100th member, received last February when WSDPO call letters were assigned to Tom Johnson.

Howard P. Estes, secretary-treasurer, said the group had attained a high state of efficiency in emergency work with major credits going to the mobile operators.

They, he reported, spent 800 man hours in practice and actual operations last year. This has included special holiday highway safety patrols which have been well received by motorists and police officials alike.

THIS FALL CARS plans to put out a directory listing names, addresses, call letters and other pertinent information on all members. Those who have not already furnished this information to Estes are asked to do so at once.

Hart Smith has been elected president for 1955-56 and, with CARS directors, is planning a number of activities starting with the Sept. 19 meeting.

Among the projects will be a complete set of ham operator classes toward obtaining novice and general class tickets. Movies will comprise part of the training material with classes in Troy township and probably Birmingham, starting in September.

News copy submitted early is necessarily given preference, so the "early bird" usually gets the space.

To Head JA Board

Don E. Ahrens, GM vice president and general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car division, was elected president of the board of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan.

Ahrens lives at Haverhill road in Bloomfield Hills with his wife and daughters, Luise and Sara Jane.

His election came at the annual business meeting of the board, attended by Southeastern Michigan business and industrial leaders who help make possible the program by which teenagers go into business for themselves.

Harvey B. Greene, treasurer and director of National Automotive Fibers, Inc., was re-elected to the board to represent Birmingham for the third time.

Of the 236 miniature concerns operated last year by JA, eight were operated by Birmingham teenagers.
