Lathrup Resident Adopted By Ottawa Indian Tribe

(At a pagan and naming ceremony held July 23-25 at Harbor Springs by the Ottawa Indians, Dr. Charles Berger of Sunnybrook avenue became an Indian chief and was given the name, Nink-Maridoo Mishkiki, which means Thunder God.)

Dr. Berger accompanied by his wife, Mrs. E. Berger, accompanied by his trip by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berger and his sister, Mrs. Helen Berger, to the Ottawa Indian Reservation, Michigan.

The C. M. Stults family of 28591 Sunset have just returned from a two week vacation at Washington Island, Wis., in Chicago, on their way home, they picked up a house guest, Ray Farina, 17, of Alhambra, N. M., who will visit with them for a few weeks.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Glenn Joy Graham of Eldorado avenue will be six years old tomorrow and the neighborhood is celebrating with plans for a pink and white birthday party.

Five little Lathrup classmates are thinking about party dresses, and although we shouldn't give away secrets, we hear there will be a large pink and white birthday cake on a table trimmed with pink polka dots.

They dressed dolls in pink miniature carriages will be favored for each little girl guests will be Joan Fuller, Barbara Pepp, Sarah Gallagher, Linda Humann and Nicoletta Bredburn.

Big brother Craig Graham would be glad to help Gloria celebrate for he is leaving today for Washington, D. C. to visit his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Thomas in Arlington, Va. Craig, a veteran flyer, will be gone for about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Heaney and their daughter, Gloria, of Boston, Mass., were visitors of the Edison Club of Glenwood avenue for a week. Mrs. Heaney is Mrs. Cobb's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McManus and their family of California drive were visited by her mother, Mrs. J. Gus Gann of West Frankfort, Ill.

NEWLYWEDS HOME FROM HONEYMOON TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paul Holmquist II are living in Detroit following a two-day honeymoon to Lake Louise, Banff, Alberta.

They were married July 12 in Cadillac, the bride's home town. She is the former Carol Ann Munson and a graduate of the Bronson school of nursing in Kalamazoo.

Belated Camping Trip Enjoyed by Lathrup Family

LATHRUP—Mr. and Mrs. William Ludemann of California drive their son Billy and their two dogs, returned last week from a two week camping on Grass Lake, near Hillsdale, Mich.

They had planned such a trip for three years, with ill luck spoiling their plans for the past two summers. The first year they were 400 miles from home when Billy developed appendicitis. Returning home, they hoped that next year would bring them better luck.

However, Billy developed rheumatic fever that summer. When this summer rolled around, the Ludemanns were afraid that a camping trip would be too much for Billy, but he assured them that he was looking forward to really enjoying it.

And though it they did without a camp stove and only one sleeping bag for the three of them.

When they returned home, they were exhausted, richer by one sleeping bag and already talking about taking a two-week jaunt next summer.

Exchange Student Leaves for Home

LATHRUP—Hanns Kristen, our German exchange student left for home July 19. Hans was here for a year stayed with the C. E. Blom on Eldorado in Lathrup, the William Vincents of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Evergreen road and Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Douglas of MacLachlan.

While here, Hans took a few interesting trips in this country from northern Michigan to the Smoky mountains. He went on the Senior class trip to the prom would bring them better luck and took part in the graduation exercises at Southfield high school where he maintained a high scholastic average.

Hanns was a member of the Key Club, student council, the track team and the debate team. He was a counselor at camp Mah-Goo-Tah during the summer before he left for home.

When they returned home, they were exhausted, richer by one sleeping bag and already talking about taking a two-week jaunt next summer.
