• MEN! • WOMEN!

CHECK YOUR POTENTIAL IN REAL ESTATE SALES — AT OUR EXPENSE!

Headed for the heights, building from a strong foundation—that's our sales team! We want some new associates: inexperienced, but with high potential and an appetite for constructive challenging work.

We will test screen, at our expense, all who are interested—and will discuss with them fully and frankly the probabilities of success in this business.

Capable real estate counselors have been developed from men in nearly every field of endeavor. Many women have enjoyed unusual success; widows, divorcees and career women with positions of limited opportunity are prime candidates.

Week-end work is necessary as are some evenings. Earnings are not assured or guaranteed—nor are they limited! A pleasant personality, an even disposition and good health are requisite.

Interested? Want to talk it over in strict confidence? Address Box 210, The Birmingham Eccentric, including your telephone number, and a brief resume of your background.

ACTS AS CHIEF

Wall Stecker, as chief, presided over the steak barbecue last Friday evening when he and his wife, Margie, entertained at a lawn dinner at the Wing Lake road home.

Guests at the informal affair were Stecker's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Long of Marietta, Ga.; Mrs. Catherine Neil and her son, Rocky, of Pine Lake, Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett of Okemos, and Bill Wallace, Mrs. Stecker's nephew.

All the sons of Margie, two sons of Eugene, staff, had been visiting the Stecker's for several weeks.

At the general birthday luncheon party held last Thursday at the Forest Lake country club honoring the birthdays of all of the feminine members, Mrs. Thomas Stewart of Sunningdale took Mrs. Robert Maskell, Thurston road as her guest. Seated at their table were Mrs. Roy Taylor of Birmingham and Mrs. Roland Benschoter, Labster road.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy O. Jarvis moved into their home at 6145 Thurston road this week from Lakewood Village where they have lived for the past 13 years.

Their daughters, Jean and Suzanne, have both graduated from Michigan State university and are at home.

Their son, Bob, is now a junior at Michigan State and affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Jarvis is with Payne, Weber, Jackson and Curtis, stock brokers.

Two guests of distinction were entertained recently by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw of Sheringham. They were Mrs. Edgar O. Reynolds of East Lansing, former amateur women's golf champion and Walter Nichols, international polo player.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball, Wing Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Fuller of Birmingham completed the guest list for this lawn barbecue event.

John Buschagen, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buschagen of Crabtree road and Jimmy Wright, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Wing Lake road, have just returned from two weeks at Camp Mann-Go-Tab-See, Pontiac, Y.M.C.A. camp on Loon Lake near Hale.

While there, Jimmy passed by A.R.C. swimming pool which is the highest he can go until he is older. Both boys enjoyed crafts.

After a month at camp Hunt in Orono on Walloon Lake, Betty Wright, Marguerite Schmidt, Nancy Knight and Diane and Vicki Allman and Diane Moore returned home this week.

Betty Wright will return Friday by air for another month. She recently completed a canoe pack trip to Tequahonno Falls in the upper peninsula with other 14-year-old girls of the camp.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hennegar and their children, Leonard and Elizabeth, returned from a two-week vacation.

The first week they spent at an cottage at Orono on Lake Huron with tennis, water-skiing and sailing as their pastimes. During the second week they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lord of Birmingham who have a summer home on Lake Van Etan near Orono.

Mrs. Millmont Flammang of West Surrey accompanied them.

MAYBE DEALS???

"Maybe" sales are notable for too-low deposits. Weak terms. Poorly drafted sales agreements. Bad contingency clauses. We don't condone them. If you want competent advice and counsel about your real estate problems, see us and do business with truly qualified realtors of known experience and integrity.
