Going Away Party Honors Mr. and Mrs. Buren Webster

The Harvey Ewalds of South Miller way held a farewell party last week for Buren and Ethel Webster, who are leaving to make their home in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Twenty-three guests attended the potluck dinner and toasted the couple. Charlotte and Harvey had music from the latest Bing Crosby album piped through their hi-fidelity set-up to the outdoor patio.

The Ewalds were Sunday guests aboard Eddy Wisnerman's boat "Heart of My Heart." Crowds on the shore serenaded those aboard with a few choruses of the melody, "Heart of My Heart" as the boat slipped away from the dock and headed out across the water.

They visited the Old Club at Harsen's Island, the Idle Hour, and stopped at Brown's for steak where they say Hollywood's Pat O'Brien.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS!

The house at the corner of Cass drive and Labors road is the new home of the Franks. Frank and Jane have three boys, Dan, 9; Rex, 4; and Michael, 22 months.

Dan's name is just that and not a contraction of Daniel. He is proud that he was named after his great grandfather, a real hero, east to goodness, two gun-totin' Texas marshal.

The Martin pets include Rocky, a collie, big but gentle, who frolics with two rabbits and nuzzles two kittens.

Jane, a former grand opera singer who has appeared with the Detroit Opera company, recalls that her greatest thrill was singing solo before an all-Italian audience, so great in their love of melody, so deep their appreciation.

Jane has written poetry and has had some of her poems published. She writes stories, too; and, she slyly admits, has the rejection slips to prove it.

Frank Martin is a designer with General Motors.

Did you read the write-up in that national magazine and in the Eccentric on Norman Strouse, Snowshoe circle, who recently became J. Walter Thompson's new president?

Miss Sharon Delaney, a resident of Japan for the last seven years, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Knappp and Mahn Ann of Lane Lake.

The Nick Kerlows, Lone Pine Village, were at Devil's lake near Adrian last weekend.

Richard Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Thorncrest, has moved with his wife and small son to Birmingham.

"Punch" Lindblom, daughter of the Fred Lindblom of Ardmore, was a recent guest of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robin Roberts (he's the Philly's start pitcher) in Philadelphia. "Punch" is now with her sister, Mrs. Albert Pepper, at Raleigh, N. C., for the rest of the summer.

Two candles glowed for little Joanne Anzick's birthday on July 21. A large family group shared the cake and ice cream. Joanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Anzick of Sunningdale.

While the Louis M. Spencers are up north at their cottage, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnson of Bloomfield Village are staying in the Spencer home on Harbide.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schilling, Stoneleigh, had an outside dinner party last Friday. Guests at the affair were the John Campbells, the Harold Drews, the Roland Hutchinsons, the N. S. Rosenburgers, Peter Kyrosopolis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hydvig, Mr. and Mrs. George Bush and Louella Schindler.

Edith Marston, Mrs. Schilling's sister from California, is a houseguest at the Schilling home.

FISHING TRIP

Harold Longdyke, South Miller way, was with the Berkeley Lions club annual outing when nine members chartered a boat and went on a two-day fishing trip at Bay Port, staying at Wild Fowl Inn. The all-star group caught 350 fish, 60 of which Harold caught himself.

Joanne Longdyke is attending city and country day camp.

Peter and Jerry Armitage, son of the J. Armitage of North Miller way, are up at camp near Saginaw Bay. Volney Fowler and his son, Terry, of Chicago are with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Vurst, Ardmore, picked up daughter, Pat.

it, at Shelby, and at the same time left son, Henry, at Camp Stonycroft.

The Van Vursts will be the guests of the Curtiss Carmichael on July 30 for the Show Boat party at the Grosse Pointe Yacht club.

Lynn Spedding and Jeanie Leslie recently spent a few days at Camp Narrin near Holly. Lynn is the daughter of the Raymond Speddings of North Miller way. Jeanie is the daughter of the James Leslies of South Miller way.

Douglas Peters, of Louisville, and Keith Hall, of Washington, D. C., stayed at Oakland Hills Country club as guests of the Dupont Yagers of Snowshoe circle, when they were in town for the PGA tournament.

Dupont's parents, the W. G. Yagers of Louisville, with the G. C. Yagers of Cleveland and the Cortney Yagers, were recent guests at the Snowshoe circle home.

The Reo Campians, Lone Pine Village, are home again after spending a couple of weeks at their lodge, San-mar-ree. Reo went babying and, of course, the big one got away. Reo believes it was a 22 to 24-inch bass.

Bud Scott, South Miller way, and his mother are home from that western trip he made in Bud's Cessna 180. They picked up the Paul Byers at Angola, Ind., and flew on to Albuquerque, N. Mexico and Capistrano, Calif.

Lindsays Visit Wartime Haunts in California

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lindsay of Kirkshire are home after an extended trip to California. Leaving here June 4, they drove to Chicago where they visited relatives and left the children while they went on their own carefree way.

Boarding a plane in Chicago they went direct to Los Angeles. Their trip combined business and pleasure, the pleasant part being a chance to look up old haunts where they spent a lot of time during the war.

Lindsay had been stationed at March Field and later near Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Southlaw avenue returned July 17 from a trip to Bridgeport, Conn. Clark was there for a special course connected with his work, and this gave Mrs. Clark, with the two girls, Susan and Sandra, a chance to visit her mother, Mrs. E. H. Waldhaus.

Bridgeport is the former home of the Clarks who have lived in Birmingham only since March.

Mrs. Rosa Unger, who has been here with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Bolz and her family on Lockerbie, for some time, left by plane last week for California and Honolulu.

While there she will visit another daughter, Mrs. Willard Higgins, who paid the Bolz family a visit in April.

Mrs. Arthur Wilde of Wentworth avenue, one of our newcomers in Beverly, gave a luncheon recently. The guests included Mrs. Dwyer Kinnucan of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Herbert Kamler of St. Clair Shores, Mrs. Charles Brown of Franklin and Mrs. E. K. Wilson and Mrs. Cameron Ryckman both of Detroit.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Special guests at the Carl Hassel home on Devonshire who helped them forget the heat of the last ten days were Sister Mary Hilda and Sister Mary Gerald, of the Holy Cross convent in Montreal, Can.

During the last weekend of their stay the Hassels had a picnic on their lawn. Other guests present, relatives from Columbus, Ohio, were Mr. and Mrs. R. Ernest Christian, their son Milton, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. George Rieser.

Sister Mary Hilda and Sister Mary Gerald also visited at the home of Ted Lindsay of hockey fame. Ted's sister, Mary Lindsey, who came out from Detroit, had been a student of the sisters at school in Renfrew, Ontario.

The Harry Woods of Sunnyslope avenue, with their sons, Tom, 11, and Bob, 14, have just returned from a memorable motor trip through the Rocky mountains.

Among the features of the trip were stops at the Dinosaur mountains, Devil's Tower and Mt. Rushmore, which was a special treat for the boys, as well as the great stone faces. They visited uranium mines, a rodeo in Sheridan, Wyo., and particularly enjoyed the natural beauties of Estes Park.

The biggest thrill for Tom and Bob was an unexpected luncheon guest in Yellowstone Park. Having left their picnic lunch unguarded for a few moments, they returned to find a large bear helping himself to a loaf of bread and a carton of milk.

To remind that the visit of the Bloodmobile for West Beverly residents is scheduled for August 8 from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. The place is the First Methodist church on West Maple road. Those wishing to contribute blood may call Mrs. Leland Rosemont at MI 1-0909 or

Mrs. John Mitchell, MI 4-6718 before Aug. 1, for appointments. Want Ads cannot be accepted after 5 p.m. each Tuesday.
