Announce Da-Y Program Change

The Birmingham YMCA staff has announced that some changes will occur in the Birmingham Da-Y program between now and the end of August 29.

These include a trip to the WWJ "Divide Staff" program at the Fisher YMAA on July 13, followed by a trip to the Detroit Historical Museum in the afternoon. On July 28, the group will be guests at Selkridge Field for a tour of the base and the hangars. July 27 and 28 is an overnight trip with the group staying in the dormitories of a private school and having dinner at a famous Inn.

August 3 is a computer's trip on the Grand Trunk Railroad with the group seeing the transfer of freight cars by barge from the American shore to the Canadian shore. On August 10 the group will visit Borden Creamery. On August 24 the Da-Y group will be guests of the Heinz Company at their Leamington, Ontario plant.

The youngsters will also visit Fort Milledge on the return trip. These changes are additions to the mimeographed program the "Y" sent out last June.

Some openings remain in the calendar schedule for August and reservations will be taken until the "Y" quota is filled. Telephone the "Y" for full details.
