Wins Oxford Dash; 'Cycles to Lebanon

Toby Maxwell, Birminghamite who is spending his vacation from Oxford university in England on a motorcycle trip across Europe, won the 880-yard race in an important meet just before Oxford's term closed. His time of 1:56.6, was the best posted at Oxford this year.

With his motorcycle carrying a camping outfit on its jump seat, he is heading towards Biecut, Lebanon to visit his mother, Mrs. C. T. Maxwell.

His route, as written to his grandparents, the Bruce Hardings of Wing Lake, will include Calais, France, Paris, Strasburg, Friebourg, Frieburg, Innsbruck, Austria, Zagreb, Belgrade, Salonika, arriving at Istanbul, Turkey about July 15.

* * *

TRAVEL PRECAUTIONS have included 32 inoculations, study of food problems along the way, and staying on the main traveled routes so that hotels are "pretty respectable and good," he writes.

When Toby was a Cranbrook School student, he and a Peruvian friend biked across Europe and attended the Olympic meet.

Another Cranbrook friend was to meet Toby in Paris. Rene Martinez is a Mexican who, after 4 years at Alma, is working with a travel firm in France.

TOBY, A MARSHALL scholar at Oxford, graduated from Princeton two years ago and took a year at University of Michigan.

The track meet, according to the Oxford Mail, was the Centipedes Match on Iffely road tracy against Kingsdown and Queen Elizabeth schools.

Besides being on the track team, he traveled some with the Rugby team, going to Scotland and the Isle of Guernsey.

His motorcycle was purchased this spring, early enough, he says, to plan for his long trip.

Ex-Troy Resident's Theft Spree Ends With Detroit Arrest

TROY—Detroit police are holding a former township resident who has admitted breaking into 30 to 40 business places, including two gas stations in the township last June 11.

Jerome S. Stafranski, alias Jerome Allen, 31, of Highland Park, has admitted to police of Detroit's Davison station that he entered the Sinclair gas station at 5000 Rochester road and the Mobile gas station at 1980 E. Maple. In each case he broke a window and smashed open the cigarette machine, taking about $8 to $12 from each, plus a large amout of cigarettes from the Sinclair station, according to Township Police Chief David Gratopp.

* * *

STAFRANSKI was on probation until 1960 from Macomb County on a breaking and entering charge. When arrested, Gratopp said, the accused was driving a stolen auto.

"He has admitted to about 30 to 40 breakins in Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties," said Gratopp. "We won't prosecute him because he will probably go to prison for violation of his probation."

Gratopp said Stafranski once lived at 4086 Rochester road.

City Attorney's Opinion Needed

Whether certain remodeling of a garage residence at 262 Elm street is in violation of city ordinances is awaiting an opinion from City Attorney Forbes S. Hascall, who is expected back in the city sometime today.

Residents feel the remodeling violates city statute, but the city building department believes the building already has been established as a non-conforming use.

This means the building was used as a residence at the time the zoning ordinance originally was passed in 1937.

Praises Efficiency of B'ham Police

To the Editor:

Recently my 13-year-old son had his bicycle stolen from the Birmingham Country club but fortunately I had recorded the serial number and was therefore able to give the Birmingham Police Department a complete description of the bike. Knowing how easily bicycles can be lost though, we held little hope of ever seeing it again.

The very next day, though, we received a call from the police advising us that they had recovered the bike and that we could pick it up.

* * *

WE THOUGHT possibly your readers would like to know of this one incident of routine work performed by their department.

Our thanks, publicly, to the most efficient way they handled this case.

RUSSELL H. CULLEN

P.S. Even though we are not residents of Birmingham we were advised to register our bikes with the department so as to aid in identification should they again be stolen. We would advise all other area residents to do likewise.
