Plane, Yacht Trips Make Cool 4th for Villagers

Two Village families chose the air and the water for out-of-town holidays over the July 4th weekend.

The Walter Simons of Wooddale road took off in their plane with their three children, Dale, Jay and Cheryl, to spend the holiday with Mrs. Simon's parents at Howie-in-the-Hills, Fla.

Away also were the M. B. Terrys of Half Moon road who are cruising the Great Lakes for three weeks in their yacht, the "Terry-go-round", with their son Bob.

The country clubs in this area attracted many holidaying Villagers. Seen enjoying the intra-club swimming meet at Oakland Hills Country club were the Frank Lynches of Covington, the Lou Bauers of Broadway boulevard, the Paul Hyman of Yarmouth and the John Palmers of Woodale court.

Children from the Village participating in the events were Judy Helgeson, Sally Lynch and Pete and Chris Palmer.

Others seen over the weekend relaxing at Oakland Hills were the Joe Baldzes, the Charles Smiths, the Chester Dudys, the Charles Houffs and the Ted Bookmyers.

After seeing their son George off to camp in Montana on June 30, the West Baldzes of Woodale court entertained on the fourth of July with a picnic supper at their summer home at Lake Angelus.

POOL PARTY

Tonight at Oakland Hills Country club the pool, usually closed at night, will remain open until midnight.

The occasion is a pool party for members of the cast of the recent talent show directed by Villager Charles Smith.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Smith, other Villagers who are expected to attend the splash party are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheldon Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bakas, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Boardman, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Avoella.

Trips for this family might show at Oakland Hills Country club were held July 5 at the club. Teenagers trying out were Sue Murray, Sue Schlaechter, Jan Lynch, Patti Palmer and Julie Smith.

The fourth of July was rompingly celebrated by Villagers living on Yarmouth and nearby streets with a picnic at the Charles Wigzib home on Yarmouth.

These ambitious Villagers hold a picnic every holiday, weather permitting, and even invent holidays in order to repeat the always gala event.

Hamburgers are considered the annual menu although each family brings a different item to complete the dinner.

Hardworking members of this group forming an unofficial committee were Mrs. Chuck Dursey, Mrs. Henry Schlaechter, Mrs. Palmer Bollinger, Mrs. Charles Wigzib, and Mrs. Paul Hyman.

Fortunately many Village firemen were present to supervise the remarkable display of sparklers.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Jenkins of Cranbrook road, and their daughter, Nancy, spent the holiday at their cottage on Pickard Lake near Petoskey. Another daughter, Barb is at Hilltop camp in northern Michigan while their son, Bob, is working in California at Bullock's department store.

Household goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.
