

Fourth of July Is Marked By Residents Here, Abroad

By DOROTHY JEAN ZACK

Fourth of July entertaining and travel brought activity to many families in the area.

Off to the Grosse Ile home where the late Gen. and Mrs. William S. Knudsen lived so many years, went their daughter, Mrs. Paul McKenny and her family, McKenny, and their three sons, Paul, Tom and Richard, of Dunstan in Bloomfield Hills.

On the shore of the Detroit river, the family's weekend included swimming in the pool on the estate and picnics out of doors.

The home, which the McKennys use as their summer home, looks toward Trenton, beyond the busy river where small boats and large freighters pass frequently.

IN DENMARK, a grandson of General Knudsen got his first glimpse of his grandfather's home, "Bill Vanderkloot of Bloomfield Hills and his parents, the Robert Vanderkloots, and brother and sister, Jimmy and Karen, are on tour of Denmark, Holland, France and England.

Bill, who just finished his first year at University of Michigan, spoke at the Danish Fourth of July celebration at Detroit, in a talk dedicated to Gen. Knudsen. He spoke in English.

The family may visit Vander-is having a summertime freedom from that club's activities, since next meeting is set for September.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cammareri of Adams are going tonight to the Grosse Pointe garden party being hosted and hosted by a Chrysler engineer and his wife. He had come several years ago from Italy and is active in Italian affairs in Detroit, as are the Cammareris. The Italian consul will be among guests.

HOME ACTIVITIES are taking a back seat for the Raymond T. Perring family of Bloomfield Hills, for the Perrings were in the center of activities for the Michigan Banker's convention in Detroit that wound up last weekend, and their daughter is on a western trip.

Perring, who is president of the Detroit Bank, was on the planning committee, for the event which climaxed the year of presidency of Birmingham banker Herbert S. Gardner.

Kay Perring is on a station wagon trip with 85 girls. The trip, which began June 23, includes nights in sleeping bags, a glamour week in Hollywood, and a visit to Bing Crosby's ranch.
