

Quarton Lake Homeowners Form Protective Group

A night meeting last week of about 75 homeowners from the Quarton Lake subdivision resulted in the organization of the Home Owners' Association of Quarton Lake Estates.

Purpose of the group is protection of the subdivision against minimum type housing. Since present restrictions expire at the end of this year, the organization plans to draft and present for adoption new restrictions.

Herbert D. Hunter, 627 Pilgrim, was elected as group president. Other officers elected were William M. Kelly, 270 Chesterfield, vice president, and Tom Shelham of 159 Lake Park, secretary-treasurer.

The association also elected 10 of its number to serve as a board of directors. They are Thomas H. Adams, Geo. H. Coleman, Dr. Carleton Fox, Carl B. Hart, J. H. Matthews, Ralph W. Moore, Robert H. Pease, F. C. Pow, A. Williston Welch, and Henry Whiting.

Griffith-Larson Candelight, tulle and Alencon lace trimmed with seed pearls was worn by Sarah Ann Griffiths in afternoons rites at the Martha-Mary Chapel.

Griffiths-Larson Rites At Martha-Mary Chapel

The Martha-Mary Chapel in Greenfield Village was the setting for the Saturday afternoon marriage of Sarah Ann Griffith and Oscar Victor Larson, Jr.

Dr. S. Lawrence Johnson performed the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ralph Griffith of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. O. V. Larson of Kansas City, Mo., and the late Mr. Larson.

THE BRIDESMAID wore a ballerina length gown of candelight tulle had a portrait neckline accented by Alencon lace trimmed with seed pearls and a lustrant skirt appliqued with motifs of lace and pearls. A half hat of matching lace held a silk illusion veil. Tulle mitts and a crescent bouquet of Amazon lilies, stephanotis, hyacinths, and ivy completed the picture.

The bride's sister, Mrs. James Frederick Fleener, served her as matron of honor. Patti Louise Fleener, the bride's niece, was a junior bridesmaid.

THE MAID OF HONOR wore a ballerina length powder blue linen dress with a lace jacket and matching shoes and hat. Her crescent bouquet was of pink flowers mingled with pink and blue carnations, cultrum lilies, and blue delphinium.

The junior bridesmaid wore a dusty rose taffeta dress with a matching jacket and carried a bouquet of blue flowers accented with pink.

The best man was William Logan of Kansas City, Mo. Ushers were James Frederick Fleener and Carl Egan.

Both mothers wore Dior blue cocktail suits with matching shoes and white hats. They pinned pale pink begonias to their purses.

A RECEPTION AT Dearborn Inn followed the ceremony. After the reception the bride changed into a white and black polka dotted tulle with a black duster and patent accessories, for traveling. The couple then left for New Hampshire.

They will make their home at Lake Epawing, Blue Springs, Mo. Out of town guests were Eileen Halcomb of Kansas City, Mo., the bride's aunt, Mrs. William Logan, also of Kansas City and Mrs. Irwin A. Prabel.

Youngsters Pass Swimming Tests

Under the leadership of George Ewing, youth director of the YMCA, eight youngsters successfully completed their Tadpole swimming tests and 17 others passed their Minnow tests.

Reid Jorgenson was the first boy to pass his Fish test and has advanced to the Flying Fish class. The series of progressive tests are being used to advance youngsters from the Minnow stage to the Shark stage which is the class of advanced swimmers. Instruction in swimming is part of the Birmingham YMCA summer program.

The following youngsters passed their Tadpole swimming tests and have advanced to the Minnow class: Gregory Akin, Robert Angove, John Gallardo, Marg Clark, James Dugan, John Doss, Gary King, and Mickey Phelan. Those passing their Minnow test were: Tom Bullman, Penny Clark, Robert Cooper, Reid Jorgenson, Ann Moore, Grant Moore, Bill McBride, Stephen Orth, Susan Orth, Lolly Farnot, Don Robinson, Mike Remondino, Jimmy Smith, Bill Stephenson, Sandra Strom, Carmen Truett, and Patty White.
