Completes Training

SOUTHFIELD—Pvt. Arthur L. Lane Jr. recently graduated from a 23-week radio operators course at Camp Gordon, Ga. During his training Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lane of 1816 Bedford, received a technical education in communications, which included the Morse code and other signaling devices.

Beverly Cub Scouts See Tiger Ball Game

WEST BEVERLY—Sixty Cub Scouts of Pack B 24 met at Beverly school July 6 and traveled by bus to Briggs stadium where they saw the baseball game there at the invitation of the Detroit Tigers.

Six adults accompanying the group were Dr. Donald Fairbanks, Cub master; Mrs. Donald Vibert, Pack mother; Mrs. Peter Kokonec, Richard Mangrum, Harold Geiger, Dr. Russell Seuburger, Clifford Wright and Jari A. Anderson.

The Dun Clymers, of South Clunbury road, had a recent visit from Don's mother, Mrs. Mary Clymer, of Ohio, who motored up for a few days.

Young Don, Mickey, their friends and all the neighborhood small fry are keeping his new motor scooter busy these vacation days as they go round and round the unraveled back roads.

Thoroughbred Bull Bought in Missouri

SOUTHFIELD—Harry F. Suher, owner of Echo Valley Stock Farms at 27255 W. 10 Mile road, last week purchased the son of the $87,000 thoroughbred bull, which was held at "Homeplace Elinemere," from the Penney-James Farms, Hamilton, Mo.

The son, "Homeplace McHenry Barbara," was sought after by cattle buyers from all over the nation, Canada and Europe attending the auction, and represents the finest line of bulls in America. The bull will be brought to Suher's farm next week.

MINIMUM UPKEEP, MAXIMUM ENJOYMENT

A wonderful place to bring up children. All the things dear to their hearts are here to enjoy.

Plenty of shade on this tree-lined street, in an ideal, hard-to-find location. Walking distance to Commuter, Woodward transportation, Adams school, and Birmingham Shops.

The yard of this freshly painted, white frame home is delightfully landscaped, surrounded by a white picket fence.

Fireplace in the living room
Two bedrooms downstairs and a huge room upstairs that could be divided off or used as one large studio
Bright, roomy kitchen. Full basement

Here is the perfect home for the smaller family and within your means at $12,600. The qualified buyer needs just $2,650 down to live here.

Ideal place to raise children! In an exclusive, secluded setting of almost an acre, on a quiet court street with no traffic problems, Birmingham school district. Of excellent construction, this two-year old brick ranch is in "like-new" condition.

The Activities Room and the Porch are both enclosed by jalousies
A lavatory off the activities room
Huge living-dining area with fireplace
Oversized garage is plastered and heated, automatic door opener, pull-down stairs
Three Attractive Bedrooms

The lot is well landscaped. Carpets and drapes throughout the house are included. It is priced to give you full value at $37,300.

The deluxe Cape Cod, in distinctive gray brick, for the smaller family. Less than a year old, condition is better than new. Lawn and shrubs are in.

Very beautifully paneled library
Fireplace in the living room
Birch kitchen, with a breakfast area
Tiled powder room; Separate dining room
Screened porch off the dining room

Situated on a tree-lined street in a settled residential area, it is just two and a half blocks from Adams school, and also convenient to the commuter. New carpeting is included.
