

Travels Here, Abroad - Afoot for Residents

Travels on this and other continents highlight the news of Birmingham area residents this week. Mr. and Mrs. William Reyster of Avon Lane are welcoming their daughter, Mrs. Robert L. Lander, her husband, Lt. Col. Lander and their two children, Mary Susan, 10 and Robin Christine, 4, home from Nagoya, Japan this week. Lander has had a 30-month assignment with the Air Force intelligence in Japan and will report to the Pentagon in July. The family arrived in California Sunday, and are stopping to see his family in Kansas.

MR. AND MRS. Floyd Rice of Tottenham and Harold Turner, local auto dealer and his wife, are arriving home today from a ten-week tour of Spain, France, Italy, England and other European countries. They traveled on the Queen Elizabeth, arriving in New York Tuesday night. The David Mott and the William H. Merrill left by motor yesterday for Hanover, N. H., where they will attend Dartmouth reunion festivities this week.

JEAN STILLMAN, of Berwyn road, a junior at Northwestern University, leaves June 18 for Honolulu, Hawaii, to attend the summer school at the University of Hawaii. Flying with her from Detroit are Barbara Berling, of Ardmore, and Marna Weister of Gresham, who will vacation on the island. The girls plan several days in Los Angeles on route.

Jack Scheitz of Niles and Carl Jordan of New Jersey were recent house guests of Fred Bevis. The three left a week ago to attend the University of Michigan's summer forestry school at Camp Fitch-Roth at Iron River. All are juniors and Fred is son of the Donald J. Bevis of Westwood.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES House of Graceland are arriving home Sunday from the Virgin Islands, where they spend a two-week delayed honeymoon. The couple, who stayed at the Virgin Islands hotel and did much swimming and fishing, were married in December but postponed travel so that they might spend winter weekends skiing at George. Mrs. House is the former Patricia MacGregor of Detroit.

JUST GENERALLY out of town last week was Mrs. Robert F. Watt of Yarkston, who went to Ann Arbor on Tuesday to pick up her daughter Jocelyn, and her roommate, Nancy Fletta, of Virginia, and again on Friday to the U. of M. alumnae council meeting. While Jocelyn and Nancy, related after finishing U. M. examinations and took a bike hike to Cranbrook, Mrs. Watt departed for the Wednesdays and Thursday Garden Club meetings in Jackson.

Has Medical Degree From Pennsylvania
Miss Jean L. Forest, daughter of Mrs. La Boida W. Forest, 1244 Bonaville, was graduated June 10 from the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. Dr. Forest, a graduate of Wayne university, was one of 40 women who received their medical degrees at commencement exercises held in Irvine auditorium of the university. Dr. Forest will intern at Philadelphia general hospital, Philadelphia. From 1947 to 1950, she taught in the schools of Waterford township.

Chantilly Lace Worn By Beverly Nordstrom

Gowned in imported chantilly lace and tulle, Beverly Joan Nordstrom became the bride of William MacGregor Mollison Saturday afternoon in the First Methodist church. The Rev. Arnold Runkel officiated at the two o'clock rites before 300 wedding guests.

Petals studded with seed pearls and a scattering of sequins outlined the open neckline of the lace look-ice fashioned with long sleeves. Layers of tulle completed the skirt. A fingertip veil of French tulle was held in place by a tiny platinum headpiece. She carried a cascade of philippine orchids and roses-of-the-valley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Nordstrom, 306 North Glenhurst. Mr. and Mrs. William Mollison of Detroit are the parents of the bridegroom.

DESCENDING the aisle before the bride in a dotted marquisette dress of romance blue with matching accessories and headpiece was Jane Boyd, maid of honor. She carried a cascade of white carnations and pale blue babies-breath. Frocks identical to the honor attendant's were worn by bridesmaids Linda Miller, Janet Weiler and Linda Landman. Lt. Robert Higginbotham was best man. Seating the guests were Lt. David Gibb and Daniel Williamson, both of Detroit, Berne Young of Portland, Mich., and David Campbell of Franklin Village.

FOR the wedding and reception, following at Orchard Lake Country club, Mrs. Nordstrom wore a mauve pink peau de soie ensemble with matching accessories. Mrs. Mollison chose blue organza over blue tulle with matching accessories. Both mothers had corsages of symbolium orchids. To start her wedding trip to New York City, the new Mrs. Mollison chose a green linen coat over a white linen dress with green and white accessories and three white orchids. The bridegroom is leaving for Germany where he will be with the U.S. Air Corps for two-and-a-half years. His wife will follow later.
