Birmingham CC Will Dedicate Pool on Sunday

Formal dedication of the Birmingham country club swimming pool has been scheduled for June 19, with special program getting underway about 4:30 p.m. Special acts, including divers of Olympic quality, will be provided for the first portion of the program. Immediately following this junior members of the club will vie for trophies and ribbons in competitive pool events. At 8 p.m., Drew C. Handlin, club president, will formally present the pool to the membership. He will publicly recognize the work of James Harley, pool committee chairman, R. A. Chapman, construction chairman, and Chester Guilmette, general chairman, along with their committees.

J. J. Myers, swimming instructor in the Birmingham school system, is to serve as pool director for the club. He will have charge of contest events during the opening. One of the highlights will be the unveiling of a bronze plaque which bears the names of some 300 club members whose gifts helped make the pool possible.

Commercial electricity was first used July 4, 1883. Today electric utilities are the coal industry's biggest customer and used a record 116,000,000 tons in 1953.
