FAIL WILL have an added interest for the industrial arts department at Southfield high school, with the arrival of this Mercury V-8 engine, gift of Mulligan Lincoln-Mercury, Detroit. Pictured with the motor are Nelson Mulligan, Marinus Van Amedey, school principal; Virgil LaMarre and William Licht, Mercury division sales, and Alby Paris, industrial arts head. Following the presentation, Van Amedey conducted the guests on a tour of the Southfield high school's new facilities.

BJHS Girls Show Original Styles

"Do it yourself fashion" highlighted the spring class show at Barnum junior high recently. Jane McKinley, Julie Miller, Ann Bailey, Katherine Doyle, Ruth Kalmbach, Carol Lancker, Susan Blies, Judy Karnes and Susan Wagner modeled skirts. Lingerie assistants, chair and dress club members at BJHS are receiving awards this week. Progress clubs having had 12 or more skirts will receive pins, those with 7 to 11, certificates. Certificates will be given to honor roll students and those with pins which were arranged under good attendance records. Office aids also are slated to receive certificates.
