PATTI PALMER MI 4-0121

WOOPS, IT'S UPSIDE DOWN, suddenly said these art students who were hanging last week's show of the Birmingham Women Painters at the J. P. Moses home in Bloomfield Hills. The still life of apples was done by Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., and Reed McIntyre, left, of Ann Arbor and Jim Tucker of Boyne City, quickly corrected their hanging-error when Emil Weddige, their professor at U. of M. realized it was not as he had seen it being painted in the society's art classes. Weddige holds a work by Mrs. F. Chalmer Smith.

CHARLES MURRAY,
Dental Graduate Will Enter Navy

Johnson Memorial winner and basketball star at Birmingham high school, Charles Murray, son of the Donald Murveys of Tibury road, was graduated June 11 from University of Michigan dental school.

He was one of eight from that department invited to join Chapter Kappa Upsilon, an honor for top students in the dental school. Another recent honor was an invitation to membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national general honor society of high-achieving students from all schools at the university.

He was a guest of Delta Sigma Delta, dental fraternity, when that group recently entertained senior members.

Dr. Murray and his wife will leave next month for Chicago where he will be in presentation as a naval lieutenant at the Great Lakes training station.

Eighteen young people from Bloomfield Village were among the graduates of Birmingham high school who received their diplomas at commencement exercises in the school gym June 16.

Helen Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Black of 817 Waddington, gave a graduation tea June 11, at her home. Guests were senior members of Tiara, Tri-A, and CTA social clubs.

Bloomfield Village school closed its final sessions for grades one through six at 11 a.m. June 15. The annual Field day for the school children was held in the afternoon, and climaxed by a family picnic breakfast.

Mary Gillen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gillen of 3019 Chestnut Cross, gave a hayride, at a lodge in Rochester, June 9, for her high grade classmates at Bloomfield Village school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer of 3555 Wooddale court have as their house guest this week Mrs. Palmer's nephew, Mike Wolosh of New York City. Mike is a senior at Yale university.

Eighteen Village Seniors Among '55 BHS Graduates

The picnic lunches. While the mothers cleaned up the left-overs, running races were held among the age groups. Winners in the eight year old area were first, Dean Nickerson; second, John Hearn; and third, Bob Targert.

Those taking top place in the ten year old finals were first, John Statin; second, Ralph DiNo; and third, Chuck Chadwick.

Winners in the nine year old finals were first, Mike Lindquist; second, Craig Adams; and third, Maitee Davies.

An informal meeting was held to honor five Webeles boys. They were Frank Bemis, Chuck Chadwick, Bob Lahey, Craig Olson and Bob Winterhalter.

The boys pinned corsages in cub-cub colors, yellow and blue, on their respective "moms" as a thank you for the help they had given the Cubs.

The Webeles also presented to the boys a small silver loving cup, which they purchased with their weekly dues. To be given each month to the den with the best attendance, most awards, and neatest appearance.

Twenty-five other Cubs received efficiency badges for their work in the past month.
