Mrs. Richard Carlson, guest speaker, showed slides of her recent trip to Europe. Green and gold, the club's colors, were used for the luncheon table decorations of flowers and place cards. Attached to each place card were two vials of perfume as favors.

Members of the club, Hazel Koehn, Merle Johnson and Estelle Darling, made the pink corsages worn by the retiring officers and the white corsages worn by the new officers.

The president's gavel was handed over to new president, Mrs. Edgar DeBardt by Mrs. Ralph Darling, past president, and a wrought-iron patio lamp, a gift of the club, was presented to Mrs. Darling by Mrs. Fred Gnaat.

Dick E. Martz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Martz, Oak Grove drive, just completed a week's visit at home. Dick is employed in New York City with Bigelow-Sanford carpet co.

Accompanying him was his guest, Miss Lee Graves of New York, a student at Pembroke college, R.I.

Mrs. Robert Dressel of Norfolk, Va., with her daughter, Diane, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw, Sheringham. She and Diane will remain until July 1. Recent weekend guests of the club were Mrs. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson of South Bend, Ind.

HAIL AND FAREWELL.

Goodbye and hello were said to two families on Carey Lane recently when Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Hornrich entertained neighbors at cocktails and dinner to say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pack and who moved to New York city and to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Al Lawrence who moved into the Packard home from Detroit.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Odle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Nurne, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Nail, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Leaf, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Del Hornrich, son and daughter-in-law of the Hornrichs.

Bill Springer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Springer, Franklin road, played Sunday afternoon in the spring piano recital given by students of Dr. Maurice Garabrandt, Christ church choir master and organist.

A third-year student with Dr. Garabrandt, Bill played "Wonderful Copenhagen" by Loessner.

At the lakeside home of the Springers, Cub Scout den 6 held its final meeting of the school year last Tuesday. Mrs. Springer is den mother and her son, Bill, one of the club. After fishing, swimming and baseball, the boys had hot dogs, pop and cake.

Frank Gadd, Meadow Way, with his father-in-law, W. C. Irving, returned from a week's fishing trip at Limerick Lodge just outside Thomaston, Ont.

Mrs. Gadd's mother, Mrs. Irving, remained as her guest.

They report good weather and perfect luck, catching their limit of northern pike, a lake trout and five speckled trout. During the week, league who have been bowling, hiking, fishing and golfing together for several years, wound up their bowling year recently with a (Continued on Page 8, Sec. 5)
