Camera Club Shows Bad Weather Prints

"Rain or Fog" will be the theme of special prints shown at the June 2, 8 p.m. meeting of the Bloomfield Hills Camera club at Cranbrook's Institute of Science. A group of general pictures also will be shown. Although this is the final meeting of the season, several summer shooting sessions are being planned, to be announced when details are completed.

BIRTHS

A son, Randolph John, was born May 15 to MR. AND MRS. RAN. DOLPH A. ADAM of East 10 Mile, Royal Oak township. Mrs. Adam operates the Heather Shoppe at 106 S. Woodward.

A daughter, Marilyn Shelley Leavelle, was born May 15 to MR. AND MRS. RICHARD S. LEASIA, 1196 Henrietta. She is third child for Mrs. Leasia, the former Marilyn Austin, and her husband.
