BOY SCOUTS
First Troop B-30 Campout Is June 25
 At its organizational meeting at the Congregational church last week, Boy Scout Troop B-30 made plans to hold its first regular meeting of June 4 at 7:30 p.m. The group plans to meet weekly throughout the summer. Arthur Zimmer is the scoutmaster, and the junior assistant scoutmaster is David [unclear]. Scout patrol leader is Steve Taylor. First campout for the group is scheduled for June 25.

MR. AND MRS. DANIEL CRAWFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Wed in Lutheran Rites

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Crawford, are making their home at 888 Chester following their marriage last Sunday in the Lutheran church of the Redeemer. The Rev. Theodore W. Wagner, read the afternoon rites.

Episcopal Rites Unites Couple

Miss Ann Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Robinson, 1924 Elizabeth street, East Beverly, became the bride of Donald Ward Donohue, son of Mrs. Lewis Harbour of Royal Oak, at rites held in St. James Episcopal church.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated at the double-ring ceremony Friday, May 27, at 11:30 a.m.

A white eyelet dress, white lace hat and white accessories were worn by the bride as she carried a finger corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. David McDonald was the bride's honor attendant and she wore navy faille and carried yellow carnations. David McDonald was the best man.

Mrs. Robinson was dressed in powder blue with white accessories. Mrs. Harbour wore a black and white gown and black accessories. Both mothers had corsages of orchids.

A reception followed at the bride's home. When the couple return from their honeymoon in Northern Michigan they will reside at 3382 Harvard, Royal Oak.

The knife thrower by a carnival touring the country had imbibed too freely and had injured his assistant.
 However he promptly found another target for his hurling cutlery—Lacy Luke, a local store porch sitter.
 "You're plumb crazy—takin' that job, Luke," said an acquaintance.
 "Why?" drawled the loafer. "Oh, I've got to stand up durin' the act, all right, but the gent throwin' the knives does all the work."
