Showers and Recital Honoring Barb Gibson

Parties, luncheons and even a song recital have honored bride-elect Barbara Lee Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Gibson, of Lenhill court in Bloomfield township in past weeks.

Miss Gibson, who is a senior student in music at University of Michigan, will wed Frank Scott Perkin II, son of Mrs. Norris Perkin of Graefield and Dr. Frank Scott Perkin of Grosse Pointe on June 24.

The rites, for which she has just completed her attendance list, will be in First Presbyterian church. She sang for 40 friends of her mother's recently at a sea given by Mrs. Earl Bartholomew at her Yarmouth road home.

FIRST SHOWER was given by Mrs. Laurence Peck, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Edward C. Faulkner on Yorkshire road. Kitchen items were given.

Next came a personal shower and luncheon, hosted by Mrs. Ralph D. Dieterle and Martha Dieterle at the Detroit Golf Club. Later, miscellaneous gifts were order of the day in a luncheon hosted at Mrs. Carl B. Black's Waddington road home by Mrs. Black, Mrs. I. W. Robertson and Mrs. Earl Bartholomew.

Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner's home on Aspen road will be the scene June 10 of a kitchen gadget shower, and the Martha Cook dormitory at Ann Arbor, where Barbara lives, was scene of a miscellaneous shower given by Sylvia Schertzer.

Where's the best place for your whole family to save?

Today, millions of Americans will tell you that the smartest place to put your savings is in an insured Savings and Loan Association. This is true whether you're the family breadwinner—or just a member of the piggy bank set.

You can open an account in these Associations for as little as $1 to $5. Your savings earn excellent returns because these Associations invest most of their funds in sound, steady-paying home mortgages.

And your money is safe—protected by good management and substantial reserves. It is insured up to $10,000 by the FSLIC, an agency of the U.S. Government. What's more, you deal with friendly, experienced people of your own community.

Why not open an account at an insured Savings and Loan Association today? It's a good idea to get to know your nearby Association—it's an important place, but because it's also a pleasant and profitable place to do business.
