Accepts Office With Local 'Y'

The appointment of George Ewing to direct youth activities of the Birmingham YMCA was made this week by William C. Gordon, management committee chairman.

Now a resident of Detroit, Ewing will succeed Paul Heins who leaves June 6 to become assistant youth director at the Flaher Y.M.C.A. branch in Detroit.

Ewing, a certified Y secretary, comes to Birmingham from the youth division of Flaher Y, where he currently has six Hi-Y clubs under his supervision.

A GRADUATE of George Williams college, Chicago, he also has had three years at the University of Toledo, his home town. With his wife, Doris, an internal revenue department employee, he will move to Birmingham this month.

In addition to being a Marine Corps veteran, Ewing has had previous experience with the Austin and South Chicago Y groups. Heins will attend George Williams college this summer to obtain credits to become a certified YMCA secretary and will be eligible next June for this office.
