dogs, one of which has nine pups, five kittens, 18 baby chicks, a white rabbit, and a guinea named "Mr. Watson."

Two types of gardening are typified by Mrs. Fruhauf and Mrs. Redfield—Mrs. Redfield lives in a North Adams subdivision where she is limited in space, while her mother-in-law has problem of filling areas with blooms or bushes.

"I couldn't possibly be a perfectionist with all this space," says Mrs. Fruhauf, while Mrs. Redfield says, "I couldn't possibly be the overall type, but I'm lucky that the land we have will grow anything. It's a former farm, and I just put a plant in the ground and it grows wonderfully."

At festive occasions, which occur frequently, include Christ Church Cranbrook events—Mrs. Fruhauf shares most of the church's projects at the Sister Kenny polo center, and Fruhauf is treasurer of the church.

The family includes Nicky Redfield, currently in New York and expecting to return to medical school at Michigan next fall. Tony Fruhauf at Cranbrook and Penny Fruhauf at Brookside, Cranbrook. Mrs. Fruhauf, who was born in England and graduated from Goddard School for Girls there, recalls using fireplaces there for heating. One of the fireplaces in the home where they have lived for 12 years is going much of the time, but she laughs when she thinks of heating the home with fireplace heat.

Party Series Aids Starr Home Funds

(Of the numerous parties being held this week and in coming weeks, Mrs. Max H. Fruhauf entertained on Tuesday, and Mrs. J. J. Nance is entertaining today at their respective homes.)

At the Nance party, the hostess included Mrs. Morgan J. Hamers, Mrs. John E. Eckenrode, Mrs. Joseph R. Wagner and Mrs. Edwin V. Clarke.

Among guests playing card games at the benefit for Starr Commonwealth school for boys were Mrs. C. H. Welch, Jr., Mrs. Ferd Brook, Mrs. Everett Wells, Mrs. Warren Peace, Jr., Mrs. Martin Archangel and Mrs. E. J. McMahon.

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of exchange of vows between Susan Halsted and Charles Persons. The couple will travel to Lake Louise for three weeks.

Susan Halsted Wed In Christ Church

Susan Margaret Halsted became the bride of Charles Albert Persons in an afternoon ceremony at the Christ Church Cranbrook on Saturday. The vows were heard by the Rev. Perry Williams at 4:30 p.m. before 300 guests.

Susan's gown was of Italian silk taffeta with a yoke and sleeves fashioned of Alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. The fitted basque bodice and princess lines were accented by the sweep of a long court train. Her veil of long illusion was held by a small heirloom lace cap.

SHE CARRIED A semi-casual fleur d'amour bouquet centered with an orchid.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall Halsted of Fairfax road. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Persons of Elyria, Ohio.

Honor attendant was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard Lynn Halsted. Other attendants were Mrs. George Persons, sister-in-law of the groom; of Elyria, Ohio, Mrs. Lee C. Hanson of Puerto Rico, Mrs. Emily Mitham of Kalamazoo, Barbara Hitt, and Mrs. Robin Ewen.

ALL ATTENDANTS wore gowns of white organza embroidered in pink silk and carried pink geranium bouquets. Large satin sashes ended in bows in the back. The pink, heron-style hats of the bridemaids were such trimmed with a single bobbing rose. Two roses trimmed the matching hat of the maid of honor.

The groom's best man was his brother, George E. Persons of Elyria. Seating the guests were David Persons, William Tattersall, Charles Hyman, Arthur Collins, all of Elyria. Others were Richard Lynn Halsted and Thomas Halsted. The bride's mother wore a French gray lace dress with an Alencon sheath and side pink bow and matching hat and accessories. The mother of the groom wore a pink pique de soie gown with matching shoes and accessories. Both mothers had orchid corsages pinned to their gowns.

FOLLOWING A reception at the Orchard Lake Country Club, the couple will leave for Jasper Park and Lake Louise. For her traveling costume, the bride chose a gray linen dress with matching bolero and red accessories.

On their return from their three week trip, the couple will make their home in Elyria, Ohio.

Forbes wore cloud blue lace and matching hat. Both fastened albumilly corsages to their gowns.

When the newbrides left by motor for a week in Northern Michigan, Barbara had donned a jacket suit of soft blue pique cotton, small white linen hat and navy accessories. They will live in Mt. Ranier, Md., a short distance from Washington.

Out-of-town guests were Barbara's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey, and their daughters Holly and Heather, of Glendale, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Owens of Battle Creek.
