Avel M. Bridges Wed In Fort Wayne

Bouquets of white carnations and gladiolus and five-branch candleabra decorated the altar when Avel M. Bridges became the bride of the Rev. George W. DeGraff in a double-ring ceremony at the Trinity Episcopal church in Fort Wayne, Ind. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. George B. Wood, Rector, with the Rev. Reginald Mallett, D.D., Bishop of Northern Indiana, presiding and giving the Absolution and Blessing.

The bridal gown was of rose-silk and rayon tulle over white tulle. The train was new lace was fitted in 30th pleated tulle and topped with a Spanish jacket which was fastened at an Empire waist. The bodice featured a ruffled collar and tapering sleeves. The beautiful circular skirt was wavy length. A double-layer secured a shoulder length veil of tulle. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Plays at Cleveland Meet

A veteran at nine, Nancy Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson, is preparing for her appearance as piano soloist at another International Kiwanis convention.

The 1955 convales will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, June 26-30.

With more than a dozen numbers memorized, Nancy is scheduled to play at the variety show in the public auditorium, international council hall, luncheon and the district and Michigan dinners. Her selections will be both classical and popular music.

MAKING HER second Kiwanis convention appearance, Nancy is a third grader at the Lathrup school.

She has studied piano under Lily L. Ezer for four years and is a member of the Sermon music club. Her national piano playing auditions. In April she passed a National Federation of Music Clubs audition with a rating of "excellent."

Nancy will be accompanied on the trip by her father, president of the Ferrisite Kiwanis club, her mother and brother Bob.
