

City Manager's Aide Leaving

Leaving tomorrow after five years with the city of Birmingham is Jack Walker, administrative assistant to City Manager D. E. Ebert.

For the first three and a half years here, Walker was city building inspector. He resigned to become construction superintendent for the Austin Building Co. of Southfield township.

Walker's replacement has not been obtained yet.

R. Wardrop Heads Torch Drive Unit

The city bureau unit of the 1955 Torch drive, Aug. 18 through Nov. 10, will be headed by Robert Wardrop, 4509 Beach Road.

The unit, under his leadership, will use a more specialized approach to solicitation of business carrying from 25 to 500 persons on the payroll. It's line of business, rather than geographical location, that will form the basis on which it is selected.

Wardrop, assistant to the vice president of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., was co-chairman of the geographical section of the unit last year. The group raised $1,069,702 against a $552,200 quota.

Wants Citizens To Protest Dog Pound Proposal

To the Editors:

To the owners and lovers of dogs in Birmingham know that Oakland county is trying to move the Birmingham dog pound to Royal Oak, to be known as the "South Oakland Community Pound".

Our dogs when picked up after being lost, strayed, etc., would be taken by the dog warden to this pound in Royal Oak.

Why can't Birmingham support its own dog pound as has been done heretofore?

There are over 1,000 licensed dogs in the city, paying $2.00 or more, which we should keep toward the support of our pound, plus our share of the cost of architectural fees and building and the trips our dog warden would have to make, 14 miles round trip.

Pontiac and Bloomfield Hills are not going in on it and we, as tax-
