We Heard It Said By:

MRS. C. A. HALL, 20730 Kenneway Circle, Berkshires: "We enjoy The Eccentric very much—it keeps us in contact. Keep the paper folksy and small towards its end as occasional view of the other political parties, and more about the coming up—sewers, zoning, voting and school zones."

Hold Benefit Dances For Stricken Family

It is difficult to carry on when one of your children has been killed in an accident which left you and five other members of your family scattered in two hospitals more than 500 miles apart—when in the same accident a brother-in-law also was killed—when your wife is unable to work because of a recent birth and surgery—and when you know that no money in coming in and hundreds of dollars in expenses are being added up as the weeks go by.

Table Stricter Laws Request

LATHRUP—A resolution asking state senator William Bloomfield to strengthen Michigan laws which "fail to adequately protect a home rule city," was tabled Monday by councilmen who turned the resolution over to city Attorney Everett F. Hayes for study.

Refuse to Open Road

LATHRUP—Council denied a request of the Kipling company of Royal Oak that Kiplerine street be opened up at the city's eastern limits to allow access to a 14-home project outside the city. Councilmen felt that at this time such a project would not serve the general welfare of the residents.
