

Heirloom Veil Worn In Candlelight Rites

Barbara Louise Kelley became the bride of Lt. Frank Prince Macartney in a ceremony Saturday at 7 p.m. in St. James Episcopal church.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver K. Kelley of Bloomfield Hills. Her husband, an Air Force lieutenant, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Street Macartney of St. Paul, Minn.

FOR THE CANDLELIGHT, double-ring ceremony the bride chose a candlelight peau de sape gown. Rose, pearl, moss and butterflies framed the tulle neckline. The princess-style gown swept into a chapel train.

The heirloom veil of Brussels lace which had been worn by the bridegroom's mother was secured by a coronet of matching lace.

Marcia A. Kelley, the bride's sister, was her maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Hope Macartney, of Washington, D. C., and Tietzka Hoven, of New York were the bridesmaids.

THE ATTENDANTS wore sleeveless gowns of aqua fashioned with long torons and draped bows at the back. Their bridesmaids wore circlets of shattered aqua carnations and they carried bouquets of delphinium to which ornamental butterflies were wired.

Grant Street Macartney, the bridegroom's father, was his best man. Seating the guests were E. Bronson Ingram II, of Nashville, Tenn., Charles L. Peet of St. Paul, Minn., and Howard K. Babcock of Buffalo, New York.

When the couple left for a wedding trip on the West Coast, the new Mrs. Macartney was wearing a cocoon silk costume with beige accessories.

They will live in Fukuoka, Japan, where the groom is with the Strategic Air Command.

Three New Families Here

Three new families have recently moved to Graefield road, all from eastern states.

Newcomers at 1622 Graefield road are Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Vaughn, Jr. and their 17-month-old son, Victor G. III.

Mrs. Vaughn is a native of New York, while Vaughn hails from Massachusetts. Vaughn, a student engineer for the Square D company, is an alumnus of the Georgia Institute of Technology and the University of Pennsylvania. Golf is his favorite sport.

Mrs. Vaughn, who enjoys sewing and plays the piano, attended Trinity college in Washington, D. C. and the University of Pennsylvania.

On July 6 Stevie Eichner, Rudy Zamora, Fred Kaufman will leave for two weeks at Camp Mahn-Gotah-See near Hale.

Last Tuesday Midge and Virginia Palubian left for Mio, where they will vacation at camp Natavike for two weeks. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palubian, will spend the 4th of July weekend at Portage lake. When the girls return from camp the family will then journey to Lake Charlevoix for an additional two weeks vacation.
