

BREAKFAST IN THE park was the theme of many a Birmingham family as Birmingham lodge, F.A.M., served their annual pancake breakfast in Springdale Park. Here an unidentified little lady gets a fried egg, dished up by Bill Parker while white-batted Jack Thatcher loads the grill for another batch of those mouth-watering golden "flapjacks". (Eccentric Photo)

LATHRUP—Heading the official slate for George F. Monaghan Council, K. of C., is George F. Rooson, 26355 Lathrup blvd. The council lists others as Charles Nugent, deputy grand knight; William E. Shallow, chancellor; W. C. Goulet, treasurer; Richard Bass, warden; J. D. Callahan, advocate; B. M. Broderick, W. R. Green and W. R. Kwart, guards; Frank Kluge, recorder, and Philip Wiepert, trustee. The group headquarters are located in Detroit.

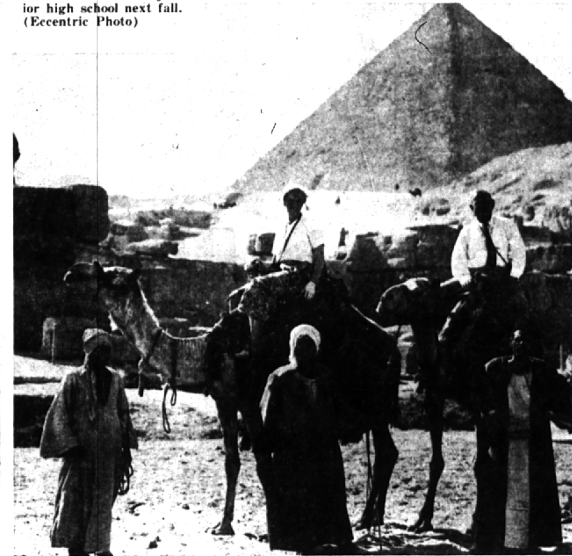

WALNUT LAKE—Mrs. Imogene Borglum, sixth grade teacher at Walnut Lake School was presented with gifts by members of the safety patrol, student council and service squad when the school held its final assembly. Mrs. Borglum taught the class which leaves the school for junior high school next fall. (Eccentric Photo)

THE PROPOSED FRUEHAUF OFFICE BUILDING on E. Maple in Troy township would present this contemporary appearance to the passing public. Construction would get under way soon as possible, with completion anticipated in the fall of 1956. Cost is estimated at over $2 million.

FIRST FLAG FOR THE NEW Chesterfield fire station is presented to Fire Chief Park Smith, by Boy Scout pack B-31 of Quarton school. Shown receiving the flag is Chief Smith, who turned and relayed it to Lt. Robert Ives, at right. The station also received a book case, complete with books, from Webelos den of the pack. Following the ceremonies in front of the station, the Scouts toured the new building and its modern fire equipment.

TOURING THE MEDITERRANEAN area, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Hemphill of 32100 Mayfair Lane, Southfield township, took time out during their visit to pyramids near Cairo, Egypt to pose for a picture on their camels. The Hemphills will return home June 30 after they conclude their tour in Italy and Switzerland.

THRU THE HOLE in the wall of the second floor library looks Ernest Keen (arrow at right) following the $100,000 fire last week at his father's home on E. Long Lake road, Bloomfield township. (Eccentric Photo)

STATIONED in Korea for 11 months, Pfc. Hartley Collins (left), returned home last week to be reassigned for stateside duty this fall. Meanwhile his brother, John (right), has received his cadet corporal stripes at S. California Military Academy in Long Beach. In addition, he has been awarded an honor patch for scholastic ability and deportment and his football letter. John is slated to help train younger, newer boys at SCMA's summer camp. The two are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Collins, 713 Henrietta.

FLAG DAY THIS YEAR took on an even greater significance to Americans. One of the prime movers in this project was A. O. Thalacker of Franklin (in light suit at right of barrel). He has sponsored and supported the idea of the nation's drycleaners free cleaning of the American flag. "More flags in brighter, cleaner colors were shown Flag Day than ever before," he commented, adding that he hoped July 4th would see even a greater display of patriotism. With Detrex President Thalacker at the cleaning of the nation's largest flag recently at U of D stadium were (from left) American Legion Commander Kent Lundgren, J. I. Hudson public relations director D. Fisher, and H. R. Norgren, 1065 N. Woodward, of B'ham, Detrex sales manager.

PAULA ALBERTSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Paul Albertson, 5110 Wing Lake, has been accepted as a student at Christian college for the coming school year. Miss Albertson will be a member of the school's 10th class. Christian is the oldest junior college for women west of the Mississippi and was chartered by the Missouri legislature in 1851. Miss Albertson was graduated from the Bloomfield Hills high school last month, the first class to graduate under the new school name.

QUARTON SCHOOL is the first to receive the beautiful safety trophy provided by the Birmingham Lions club. Public and parochial schools will compete for safety records within the several units, under the supervision of teachers and police. Shown above are safety patrol workers, Capt. Bill Lerchen, Lt. Ruth Ann Payton, Capt. Melanie Eklund and Lt. Jim Farrell, with teachers Robert McGee and Alice McHugh. Capt. Lerchen said the trophy would be displayed throughout the city schools, coming back to remain at Quarton until the June, 1956 season ends. (Eccentric Photo)

SIXTH GRADERS at Walnut Lake School take part in school affairs for the last time. Next year, the group that is pictured above, will begin junior high school. The group, in farewell to their schoolmates, put on a skit which outlined the class's history from kindergarten to the present day. (Eccentric Photo)

WHILE STORM clouds gathered, officials at the Birmingham country club pool dedication June 19 stepped the program up to beat the rain. The formal unveiling of the plaque bearing 300 names of contributors was skipped as club president, Drew C. Haseline made a brief dedicatory address. (Eccentric Photo)