Martin Franks Entertain In New Northfield Rd. Home

The Martin Frank family who are looking forward to entertaining numerous house guests in their spacious new home on Northfield road this summer, have guests from Ohio with them now.

Diane Kuhn and Mr. and Mrs. David Singer, all of Cincinnati, are here and Mrs. Frank's sister, Mrs. A. M. Landman, with her son Steven, also of Cincinnati, are expected on July 4.

Yesterday Jeffrey Frank, who is a student at Cranbrook school, left for Camp Tawaga, in northern Michigan, for a rugged outdoor vacation.

Welcome to newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Voorheis formerly of Wallied Lake, who have moved into their new ranch home on West Maple road.

The Voorheis have a son, Jim, who will be a junior at Michigan State university next fall. He is affiliated with Delta Sigma Pi and Phi Mu Alpha. During the summer, Jim is playing weekend dates with a small combo.

Voorheis is a partner in the Voorheis and Co. Insurance agency, in Wallied Lake, where he belongs to Rotary. His hobby is fishing, mostly at the family cabin in Osceola.

Mrs. Voorheis, a member of the Lakeside division of W.S.P.A., is interested in gardening. During the summer, the family commutes to the Osceola cabin, and during the winter vacations in Florida.

NEW NEIGHBORS

Welcome to the Otto Newman, who moved into their new home on East Dartmoor this month after living in Birmingham for eight years.

The Newmans have a son James in the navy, on the USS Piedmont in San Diego, James is a third class sonar man, with two and a half years of service.

Mrs. Newman is a teacher at Barnum junior high school, and her husband is a representative for Jones and Brown, Inc., of Pittsburgh, Pa., dealers in building supplies. They attend the First Methodist church of Birmingham.

Following the closing of school, the Reginald Rice family of East Dartmoor road, took off for Syracuse, N. Y., for a reunion with old friends. After returning home Mr. and Mrs. Rice left for Princeton, Ky., with Bob, John and Anne, for a visit with their families.

In honor of visitors from California, Mr. and Mrs. James Sneed of Pasadena, the Dale Brubackers, of South Chubbuck road, entertained at cocktails on June 25.

Guests also included Dr. and Mrs. George Robinson, of Gross Pointe, parents of Mrs. Sneed, and Dr. and Mrs. Earl Lutz, of Lanter Lane.

Cocktails were followed by dinner at Devon Gables. The party ended with tables of bridge at the Lutz home.

FAREWELL TEA

Highlight of the community tea for Walnut Lake school principal, Miss Marjorie Valey, was the presentation of a farewell gift by popular subscription. The tea table decorated with red roses on a white cloth, containing the silver service, and fruit punch was served from

S'field Farms Plat Rejected by FHA

SOUTHFIELD—Superior Engineer Swem told the town's ship board last week that the Spoon Brothers plat of Southfield Farms in Section 24 had been rejected by the FHA because homes proposed in the subdivision backed homes in the adjoining subdivision face the street.

"They planned to have a green belt along 19 Mile and not allow any exit onto the road from Southfield Farms," said Swem. "I have placed the plat sketch on file. If they want to make changes or sell without FHA approval I have no objection."

The latter group stayed all night at the Village with the troop, sleeping in a dormitory in the educational building.

Due to the girls' inability to set down to normal pitch, the mothers, who whiled away some of the evening playing cards in the lounge, report that few in the crowd had much sleep. Breakfast was served at the historic Clinton Inn, and was followed by tours of both the Village and the Edison museum.

Jack Worthington Speaks at Meeting Of Bloomfield 4H

WALNUT LAKE—Bloomfield 4H club members held a meeting on June 22 at the West Bloomfield township hall with a talk by Jack Worthington, Oakland county agent, on principles, achievements and the program of 4H clubs, a feature of the meeting.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Robert Myers and her daughter, Linda. Mrs. Walter Szekle and her daughter, Laura. Mrs. Robert Broth-

Harold Jones and her daughter, Nan, and Mrs. Ernest Jacobson with her daughter, Linda. The members who made the trip to Hob-Lio on June 20, in spite of the cloudy skies and occasional rain, gave an enthusiastic report on the outing. A group of 32 took the train to Birmingham for downtown Detroit and the boat docks. They had picnic lunches for their stay on the island, and amusement on the excursion boat was furnished by dancing, and by raffles and amusements on the island.
