Area Residents Weekend At Northern Summer Homes

With June ushering in summer-cottage time, many West Beverly residents are off to warm-weather retreats on Michigan lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon G. Wolcott of Warwick returned Tuesday from a weekend at Lost Lake club near Alpena, where golf, fishing and rides through the woods are popular diversions.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Alonan of Beverly entertained a group of friends over the weekend at their cottage near Amherstburg and at the Lake Erie Country club.

Those who crossed over to Canada June 18 with the McLorans were Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Linsenmeyer, both of Beverly road, and Mr. and Mrs. William Martin.

Others entertaining at their cottage were the Clarence Smarts of Devonshire road. With their friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. Floyd Blakeley of Pontiac, they spent the weekend at the Smart cottage at Blue Lake about 200 miles north.

The Stanley Andersons of Devonshire road are preparing to leave for their summer lodge, "Wonderwood" at Elk lake. They will leave June 2 and remain over the holiday with their daughter, Robyn, and son, Tom.

We welcome to Beverly Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rosener who moved here from east Detroit. Rosener is connected with Micromatic Hone company. Both attend Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

Franklin Village ANGELA DADSON MA 62441

Newcomers from East, West Coasts, Redford, Move Here

New residents in Franklin include a family from the West coast, another from the eastern seaboard and a third from nearby Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. David Shepperd, originally from Los Angeles and, for the past few months, residents of Royal Oak, are settled now in their place on Franklin road.

Their children are Mary Jane, 11, David Jr., 8, and Billy 5.

Shepperd is a writer, with the Jam Handy organization in Detroit.

Have you met Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nathan and their son Lee, 18, who have moved from Hempstead, Long Island, N. Y., to their new residence on Old Lake road? Nathan is divisional manager for the Electrolux corporation in Detroit.

Welcomes are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Cote who have moved from Redford into their new home on Wing Lake road. The Cote children are Robert, 16, and David, 11.

A daughter, Shirley Ann, became Mrs. John L. Snyder last Saturday.

Cote is with the Webb Forging company at Belleville.

Elected to the board of the Franklin Village Players, replacing retiring members Bob Mitchell and Mrs. John Hill, are Mrs. Don Odle and Phil Van Dyke.

Franklin was represented among the participants in the Bloomfield Open Hunt horse show last weekend by Misses Mary Jo Fisher, Nancy Fisher, Marsha Worley, Marie Hamill and Mary Casenisher.

LAWN PARTY
The Kenneth Wagons were hosts to 17 guests at cocktails and a lawn party at their home on Charles lane on a recent Saturday night.

Mrs. Donald Hacker and her children Rutaine, Donna and David, have returned to their home on Colony Hill road after spending a week in Ruthven, Iowa, where they visited Mrs. Hacker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Simonson.

The Jack Faulkners, Irving road, have as their house guests, his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Faulkner, Sue and David, here from Albuquerque, N. M.

The Clifford Sponsels, whose home on Capata lane is for sale, plan to leave Franklin the latter part of July. They will make their home in Santa Barbara, Calif., where Sponsel has acquired a partnership in a business.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews have just returned to their home on Mark court after a ten-day vacation in Atlantic City. Andrews, who has been with Vickers, Inc. for 15 years, is now sales manager for the Clark Equipment company. With his new offices in Buchanan, Andrews will be a weekend commuter to and from Franklin.

Dr. and Mrs. Russel Alles have house guests at their place on Mark court for an indefinite stay. Dr. Alles' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alles of Stockton, Calif.
