

Regional Governor Installs for 19 Soroptimist Clubs

Ann Hoover and Helen Larkin started a trip Tuesday which will take them to nine cities in Ohio, two in Wisconsin, and back to Michigan.

Miss Larkin, governor of Midwestern Region of Soroptimist clubs, will install new members of 19 Soroptimist clubs during her travels.

She and Mrs. Hoover will be guests of the respective clubs in those areas they are scheduled. Miss Larkin's first installation ceremony took place Tuesday in Zanesville, Ohio. Other Ohio stops include Fremont, Tiffin, Celina, Akron, Columbus, Mansfield, Dayton and Urbana.

Pi Phis Adjourn

Pi Phis of the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae club will end their social season for the summer with a luncheon on the porch and lawn of Mrs. S. W. Thyball's Orchard Lake home. When the members gather at 12:45 p.m., they'll be bringing swim suits for a lake dip before lunch.

Named to U-M Joint Judiciary Group

Signal honors have come to two Birmingham girls who have been named to the joint judiciary council at the University of Michigan.

Miss Andrea C. Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Snyder, and Miss Martha Wallbillich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Wallbillich, Redding road are the two selected.

The council was formed to broaden and equalize disciplinary action at the university. Both men and women are appointed to hear cases and aid in making decisions on any student body infractions.

Council members work closely with the deans yet functions as an individual group.

Five were chosen this year to fill the vacancies of graduating seniors. Scholarship and citizenship are considered deeply when council interviews are granted.
