Jere Doroughs Residing In Japan; Visited Cities

The Jere F. Doroughs are living in Bayview apartments in Kobe, Japan, after completing their wedding trip to two old cities of Japan. The Doroughs, who were married in mid-March, have seen much of the Japanese culture. Their wedding announcements, printed in Japanese-looking script, were done with aid of an interpreter. Mrs. Dorough, who was Martha Jean McKinstry, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McKinstry of Indianapolis, Ind., and she flew to Japan to wed Dorough, whom she had graduated with from Purdue university in Indiana last June. Dorough is the son of the J. T. Doroughs of Beaconsfield, West Beverly.

FOR THE WEDDING, the bride wore an ivory satin afternoon dress and matching hat trimmed with seed pearls and carried white flowers. The couple's attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Russell. Russell is stationed at the same post with Dorough.

Following a wedding dinner at the Oriental hotel, the couple visited Kyoto, ancient town which they write is full of shrines and fabulous art stores, and Nara. Mrs. DOROUGH, who was an interior decorator at Hudson's before her marriage, described the art objects found in Kyoto. They purchased four plates that were 500 years old for everyday use in the Nara shopping district. Dorough will be stationed in Japan until June 1956. He has been in service since last July, and went East after Christmas.
