Canadian Motor Trip Planned by Newlyweds

Mrs. Thomas C. Carey, formerly of Carey Lane, Wing Lake, and Harvey E. Leib, formerly of St. Claire Shores were united in marriage Saturday evening at a 7 o'clock garden wedding.

The ceremony and reception took place in the picturesque garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Willetts, Rivard boulevard, Grosse Pointe.

The 125 guests witnessed the vows spoken under a natural arbor of roses and conducted by Rev. T. C. Wiener, pastor of Trinity Evangelical church, Detroit. The garden was ablaze with roses, peonies, irises, lupins and daisies which made a perfect setting for this garden ceremony.

Thomas C. Carey gave his mother-in-law, Emmett Leib, brother of the groom, was best man and his wife, Ruth was matron of honor. The wedding march was amplified to the garden from a Hi-Fi system.

THE BRIDE wore a cocoa, Italian linen suit, a white flowered hat and a white orchid. Her matron of honor was also dressed in a brewx summer suit, white hat and wore a brown orchid.

The reception followed the wedding in the garden. In the center of a large table was a three-tiered, pale pink wedding cake on top of which were tiny pink rose buds. The table was appointed with crystal candelabra and scattered with blossoms of amuliac, roses and daisies.

At small tables throughout the garden, the guests were served wedding cake and punch.

Leib, manager of General Motors Training Center, and his new wife are at home at 1725X Bentler, Detroit.

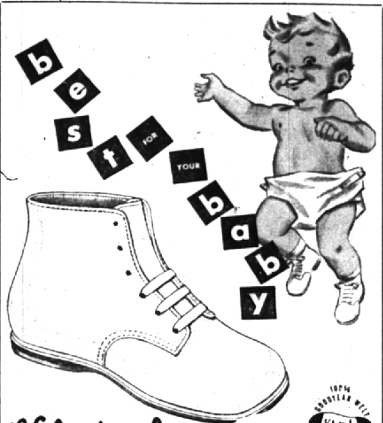

For the month of July they will take a motor trip to Montreal and Quebec and around the Gaspé.
