Guests Don Sarongs, Leis For Hawaiian Dinner Party

When Lynn Granger entertained a group of 50 young people at an Hawaiian dinner party, held in the gardens by the lake, last week, lanterns trimmed the grounds and the guests were dressed in sarongs and leis.

Swimming was one of the features of the affair. Lynn is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Granger of Middlebelt road.

The day before this party, 40 members of the BHS Girls Athletic association held an outdoor picnic and swimming party at Lynn's home from 4 to 7:30 p.m.

Girl Scouts who spent a busy day at Camp Harris on June 4, passing tests preliminary to their summer Council-sponsored camp trip, are Sally Hanson, Estella Quirk, Kay Graber, Mary and Margaret Robert.

Members of the Don Clymers, of South Clunbury road, last weekend party and Mary Ellen Davis, of 1245 E. 12th, another group went to Camp Indianwood, a new camping area north of Pontiac, recently acquired by the Southern Oakland County council for training as program aids. In this capacity they will help with younger children at Scout day camps. Kay Graber, Jewell Offenberg, Mary and Margaret Robert are enrolled in this program.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clymer, visiting here from California; Mrs. Lynn Lutz, the Ingle Brothers, of Schafer, from Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. Max Clymer, of Detroit.

WESTERN TRIP

Leaving small Natchez here with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Lutz, the Ingle Brothers, of South Clunbury road, with four-year-old Paula, took off on vacation. Their destination was Bruch, Colo., just north of Denver, where they arrive through 50 miles of storm, with hailstones so large and heavy that their car had to stop windshield were badly pitted. Because of the snow in the mountains, many of the scenic spots such as Pike's Peak and Will Rogers park which they had planned to visit were closed.

They stayed for a while in Colorado Springs, and then drove on to Bruch.

In Fort Leavenworth, Kan., on the trip down, they took time out to look up old army friends, school and Mrs. Chet Kennedy.

On the return trip, they were in Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, who drove there from Stillwater, Okla., for a reunion. Morgan, a former teacher at Merrill Palmer Normal school in Detroit, is now connected with Oklahoma A. and M. at Stillwater.

Recent home guest at a miscellaneous shower at the Darker Rockwell home, on Putnam drive, was Jacqueline Murray Day, "Jackie," a Delta Gamma Chi at Wayne university. It is a sorority sister and classmate of the Rockwells' daughter, Barbara Strander.

Members of the Walnut Lake boys' club went as a group to see the Chicago-Tiger ball game on May 27. Accompanying the boys were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson, of Putnam drive, and Larry Teal. On their way back to the Walnut Lake Men's club and the boys' club had a rousing ball game at the school, with a cheering section of loyal supporters. The final score was 30-11 in favor of the men. However, the juniors were cheered by the fact that they raised money for their club activities by the brisk sale of hot dogs and pop during the game.

WELCOME NEIGHBOR

Welcome to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boyd, of Langham road, who have just moved here from Detroit. Mrs. Boyd is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bosart, of Putnam drive. Boyd, whose hobby is golf, is with the Ford Motor company, at their Mount Road plant.

Mrs. James Roberts, of Lakeside road, is spending the weekend in Cleveland, where she plans to attend the 25th college anniversary celebration at Western Reserve university. On the trip home she will also stop away in her car daughter Louisa's wardrobe and room accessories at college.

Louisa is leaving for Lake Geneva, Wis., immediately after the closing of school for a convention of the Student Christian Union. Accompanying her to the convention will be college classmate James King, who will return here for a week's stay before leaving for his home in Ohio.

On the recently published honor roll from Birmingham High school are the names of Valerie Benway and Boyce, seniors, and Mary Johnson and Pamela Perkins, freshmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Andre Callens of 5611 Sunnyside drive gave a luncheon party May 29 in honor of their daughter Judith's 15th birthday party. Guests were Martha Kukukin, Lynn Foster, Susan Callens, Mark Ulfery, Carl Wehrle and Richard Dahl.

Others helping Judith to celebrate were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gourlie, and their daughter, Rita. Mary Connolly, an uncle, James Gourlie, and Mr. and Mrs. James Boldy of Detroit.

Doorbell Committee Registers Voters

WALNUT LAKE—Three hundred new registrants have been rounded up by a committee ringing doorbells in the Walnut Lake school district.

Friends interested in backing the candidacy of John Sabalodjan, who is running for a seat on the Birmingham Board of Education in the coming school election, visited newcomers and oldtimers, and have succeeded in boosting the registration to the largest the area has ever had.
