

Silver Swords Form Arch for Newlyweds

PALMS, white gladioli and white snapdragons and cathedral candles formed the setting for the Wood-Kreger rites Saturday in the First Methodist church in Clarkston. A honeymoon trip to the New England States followed.

Crossed swords formed a silver arch for the marriage of Jane Hollowell Romig to Delbert Vernon Keener following his graduation from Annapolis Naval Academy Friday. The impressive formal military wedding took place at 5 p.m. in the Presbyterian church in Annapolis, Md.

Designed and made by the bride, Jane's white chiffon gown was reminiscent of the colonial era. The tight bodice was fashioned with a round high neckline and a full three tiered skirt ending in a train. A simple long white silk chiffon veil fell from a close fitting headdress. She carried a spray of calla lilies.

The bride is the daughter of John Frederick Romig of Downingtown, Pa., and the late Mrs. Romig. The new Zeigler's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Keener, 1295 Holland avenue.

MRS. Robert O. Constable was her sister's maid of honor. Attending as bridesmaids were Janet MacDonald, Mrs. Benjamin Bacharach and Joan L. Romig.

All attendants wore white dotted Swiss gowns with tight bodices, draped necklines and full skirts. Waistlines were accented with sat-in summerbands. In their hair they had Ivy headpieces and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Donald D. Keener arrived from the Mediterranean in time to act as his brother's best man. Fisher Hammerstrand, Thomas Houston and Lloyd Hodgins.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kreger chose a blue lace waltz length gown with pink accessories. Mrs. Wood wore coral brown lace with pink accessories. Both mothers had pink rose corsages.

When the newlyweds left for their honeymoon trip to the New England States, the bride was wearing a navy linen suit and the white rose corsage from her bridal bouquet. When they return they will make their home on Manchester road in Birmingham.

Honeymooners Tour New England States

Marilyn Blanche Kreger and William Wood spoke their nuptial vows in a double-ring ceremony last month in the First Methodist church of Clarkston. The eight o'clock rites were said before 250 wedding guests with the Rev. Robert M. Atkins officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Kreger of Perry Lake road, Clarkston, formerly of Birmingham. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James Wood of Willoughby, Ohio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was groomed in white crystallette fashioned with a portrait neckline trimmed with seed pearls. The full skirt fell into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a hair of crystallette and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her only jewel was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

MATRON of honor was Mrs. David Williams of Royal Oak and bridesmaids were Mrs. William Borow, Maxine Kreger, cousin of the bride of Franklin Village, and Jean Wood, sister of the groom of Willoughby, Ohio.

All of the attendants wore blue crystallette gowns with matching net headpieces and mitts. They carried fan-shaped bouquets of yellow roses and white chrysanthemums.

Strawberry Binge!

Strawberries are here. And folks who love them are going wild. Those wonderful fresh, plump, rosy berries look so good that people often buy more than they can eat. But that's no problem for home freezer owners. They eat their fill, then freeze the rest for winter feasting.

There's no such thing as out-of-season delicacies when you own a freezer. You eat what you want when you want it!

Treats galore in your own store!
