

Select Team Names For Exchange Club Toothbrush Sales

"Cavities," "Molars," and "Dentures" are the names selected by the Birmingham Exchange club for the three 14-man teams which will compete in the forthcoming toothbrush sale.

Gifts, service clubs, trust funds and the like, the Oxford organization will provide summer vacation headquarters for a number of youngsters and a permanent home for boys at the ranch. The local club is setting its sights on making a major contribution toward the construction of an additional cabin on the lake front.

Stands Mute On Check Charge

George L. Wade, 41, of 16277 Kirkshire Rd., Southfield township, stood mute Monday in Oakland County Circuit Court when arraigned on an illegal check charge.

Circuit Judge George B. Hartick entered a plea of innocence for Wade, who is accused of cashing a $10 check in Birmingham last Dec. 12 without a bank account.

IMPORTANT NOTICE from La Measure

Study Whitehouse Floral History

A great segment of the social history of flowers will soon be revealed by Mrs. William H. (Alice Wessels) Burlingame, who leaves Saturday for a "research visit" to Washington, D. C.

Scheduled to visit the White House Monday morning, Mrs. Burlingame, a lecturer and author of the Eccentric's "Down how America's First Ladies used flowers to further hospitality." The use of the greenhouse in supplying cut blooms for everyday use and social functions will be a part of her study, as will the landscaping of the White House grounds.

"PLANTS and trees used in landscaping have come from all over the world," she said, "and should make a most fascinating study. My opportunity to do this research was made possible through our congressman, George Donato, former of a horticultural symposium in Williamsburg, Va.

30 Signs On Public Property Removed

About 30 signs attached to public property were taken down during the past few days after Police Chief Ralph W. Mosley declared that such signs were in violation of a city ordinance.

George Granko, acting under Mosley's removal order, said all of the signs confiscated were those of either business or real estate brokers.

The signs, amounting either the erection of a new building by a contractor or the opening of a new business, were removed from public property between the street and front sidewalks, Granko said.

★ Smile a Minute ...

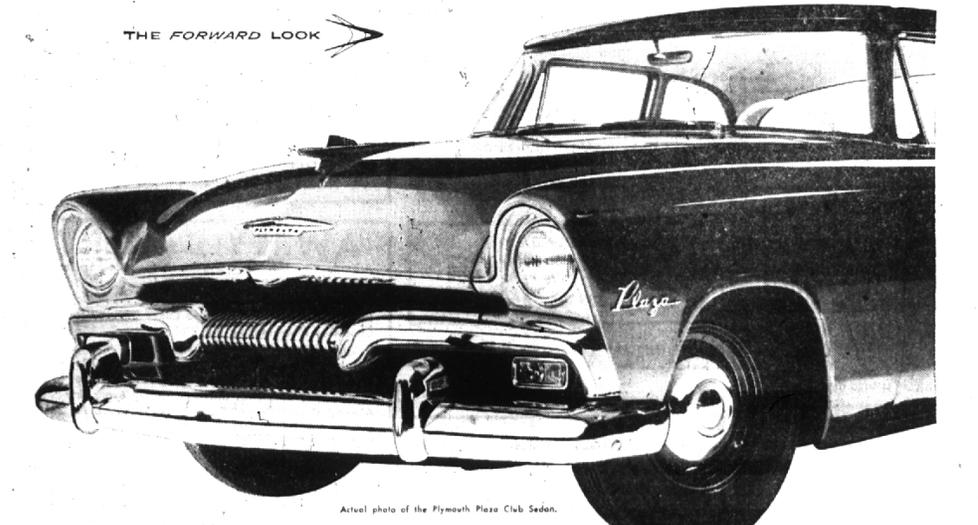

Won't you give a smiling to the Lord? said a Salvation Army girl to an aged Scotsman.

"How did you go, Lassie?" he inquired of her. "Nineteen, Sir."

"Ah, well, I'm fast 70, I'll be seem in afore you, so I'll hand to be 'im myself!"
