Friends Surprise Connors With Housewarming Party

Dr. and Mrs. Edward D. Connors, 3856 South Miller way, were very pleasantly surprised Sunday, Feb. 20, when 20 of their friends gave them a housewarming party. All of the friends were members of the Lapidary society in which the Connors are active.

Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Courtney, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Atcher, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. William Wert, Mr. Clemens, Jr., and Mrs. Harold Wilkin, Ferndale; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bradlock, of Berkeley and Dr. and Mrs. Thornton Boissau, of Bloomfield village.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Armstrong, 105 Gilbert Lake road, entertained members of Mrs. Armstrong's family from Howell, Saturday evening, March 5. Guests included a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dickerson; a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lair Ladouceur and another sister, Mrs. Lorraine Teisman. The Armstrongs' son, Dick, was also one of the week-end from Michigan State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Badger, Cottontail lane, left Tuesday March 8 for a three week vacation in Hollywood, Florida. The Badgers expect to play golf, swim and get plenty of sunshine.

LT. Clayton Armitage arrived in New York City Wednesday, March 9, where he will stay until March 11. He will leave his unit for Germany. He will be stationed somewhere near the Swiss border.

Mrs. Armitage, formerly Barbara Inch, flew to New York for the weekend to be with her husband. Barbara attends the University of Michigan.

C. P. Armitage, Clayton's father, left South Miller way, left Thursday, March 3, for a business trip to New York. While there he will also visit his son.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Soss of Beverly Hills, Calif., were honored guests Saturday evening, March 5, at a dinner at Fox and Hound given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Crower. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Bird, of Winingham House, East Long Lake; Mrs. Ross Curtis, Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Munns and Mrs. A. C. Raleigh of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Soss, and Mr. and Mrs. Munns, all lived in the Winingham House at one time, so it was reunion of old neighbors.

After dinner the guests returned with Mr. and Mrs. Brower to their home at 6285 Hills drive.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
To celebrate his 17th birthday, March 5, Denny Moriarty invited eighteen friends for an evening of dancing and games at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Moriarty, on Hills drive. A late snack was served after the evening's fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Metzger returned to their home on Hills drive recently following a two weeks stay in Denver, Colo., where they attended their daughter Carolyn's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fry and their children, Susan, Tom and Willie, drove to Saginaw, Sunday, March 6, for dinner with Fry's mother, Mrs. Charles Fry. The occasion was Mrs. Fry's birthday.

Saturday, Feb. 26, was moving day for Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Ogus when they moved from Southfield Terrace, Birmingham, into their new home at 630 Jonathan lane. The Ogus formerly were from Detroit. Mary Ann, 14, and Robert, 8, the Ogus' children, attend Bloomfield Hills High school.

POTLUCK DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dungan, of 3953 Cottontail Lane, were surprised Feb. 26 by eight couples for their bridge club who arranged a potluck dinner. Included in the group were former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Guy, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frisdale, Mrs. and Mrs. William Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Setina, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan, all from the Beverly Hills section of Royal Oak.

The group presented Mrs. Dungan with a very pretty decanter.

The Dungan's little Susan, 5, is a resourceful Miss. With a birthday late in December, and unable to go to school until next fall, Susan grew tired playing alone while brother George was in school. One sunny February day Susan began ringing door bells in the neighborhood inquiring for little girls until she came to the home of Barbara Badger, almost 5. Barbara was attending nursery school but her mother promised to bring her over when she came home. Detroit, and Miss Jane Lombard, of Hazel Park. During the evening Miss Lombard showed pictures of her recent three-month trip in Europe. The pictures were of particular interest to Dr. and Mrs. Miller as they had made the same tour within the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donahue drove over from Jackson, Sunday, March 6, to have dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dungan and to see their new home at 3953 Cottontail Lane.

Little Doreen Longdyke, 2, saw her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallon, for the first time when they came from their home in Syracuse, N.Y., Tuesday, March 1, for a two-week visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longdyke, of 3847 South Miller way. The Longdykes have three other children, Harold, Mary and Joann.

Sunday, March 6, was a big day for Girl Scout and Browne Troops at Holy Name Church when they attended Mass and Communion with their leaders. Twenty girls of Browne Troop 322, under the direction of Mrs. Reinhardt E. Vogt, attended church with the girl scouts and then went to Mrs. Vogt's home at 5922 East Miller way for breakfast.

Three of the fathers, John Kelly, of Lincoln street, Birmingham; Reinhardt Vogt and R. J. Egan, of North Miller way, prepared and served the breakfast for the group. Several children of the group also participated in the confir-tion services conducted by Bishop Henry Donnelly, Sunday evening, March 6 at 7:30 p.m., at Holy Name church.

Included in the group were Mary Teresa Peabody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peabody, of North Miller way, and Roger Picou, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Picou.

To honor Roger, Mr. and Mrs. Picou entertained seven guests at a 4:30 p.m. dinner on Sunday. Guests included Roger's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaFond, his grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Picou, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. O'Hara of Grace Pointe, Betty LaFond and Mike Bun.

CLUB SPEAKER
Mrs. George W. Chesley, Gilbert Lake road, left Friday, March 4 to drive to Glendale, Ohio, near Cincinnati. She will spend a week visiting at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Warren Dunphy.

While in Ohio, Mrs. Chesley spoke to the Glendale Garden club on the subject, "What Judges Look For", explaining the fine points in arranging exhibits for a flower show. Mrs. Chesley also demonstrated some unusual flower arrangements.

Frontier Days, the theme at the Cub Scout Pack 6 monthly meeting in Cranbrook gymnasium on March 2, was carried out by Den 13's skit entitled, "Kit Carson, the Red Man's Comedian". Cubs playing parts in the first act were—Arthur Johnson, Kit Carson; Terra Moore and Edward Berge, guides; Bob Aten, Ronnie Smith and Skip Remington, Indians. "In the second act Bob took the part of Kit Carson and Arthur was an Indian Chief. Edward was also an Indian in the second act as were Ronnie and Skip.

Cubs receiving awards were Dan Andrews, who won a Bear Badge; Arthur Johnson, who received a Bear Badge with gold and 2 silver arrows; and Bob Aten, who won a silver arrow on his Bear Badge.

Members of Den 3, presented still life pictures of famous people of Frontier days, and Cubs in Den 12 acted out a recording of "The Story of Daniel Boone".

MORE PEOPLE BOUGHT FORD CARS IN 1954 than any other make!

Ford passenger-car sales to customers outnumbered those of any other make by thousands*

AND IT'S EASY TO SEE WHY!

Ford is the leader in styling
Motorists know that Ford has set the style trend in the industry for years. And now, with styling inspired by the fabulous Thunderbird, Ford is farther out front than ever!

Ford is the leader in V-8 power
Ford was first in its field by 23 years* to provide the advantages of V-8 power. Since that time, Ford has built over 14,000,000 V-8 engines — more than all other makes combined! For 1955, Ford offers two new and mighty V-8's, as well as a most modern Six — all with the split-second response of Trigger Torque power!

Ford is the leader in ride
Ford was first in its field to introduce Ball-Joint Front Suspension — the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years. For '55, it's even better. Springs are set at an angle to smooth out even the tiniest bumps. It's the new Angle-Poised Ride.

FORD IS THE LEADER IN ALL THE FEATURES THAT MAKE YOUR CAR WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT - WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT
