

B'ham Musicals Offers Scholarships

The Birmingham Musicals is offering six partial scholarships of $50 each available to high school students who may be interested in furthering their musical education at any summer school or camp.

To qualify, students must send an application to Mrs. D. L. Tate, 959 Westchester Way, not later than March 25.

Auditions will be April 1 at Mrs. Tate's home at 3:30.

Victor Ulrich, vocal music instructor, received $50 dollars last week from the Hi-Twelve club to be used for the Birmingham high school's choir fund.

The vocal group has always enjoyed doing programs for Hi-Twelve because the members are a very appreciative audience and generous in their contributions.

Artists' Group Elects Officers

The new officers for the Adams Arts Clubs are: 5th and 6th grade, Nancy Perkins, vice president, Emily Edwards; secretary, Carol Blodgett, and treasurer, Jennifer Jackson.

Seventh grade, president, James Walker; vice president, Tom Gorton; secretary, James Parry; and treasurer, Bruce Minturn.

The clubs meet Wednesday after school at 3:30 and the 5th and 6th grades meet from 3:30 to 4:00. The clubs plan to do work on decorations for school projects, do some experimenting with new materials, and go on some field trips.

Miss De Long, the art teacher, is the sponsor.

Barnum Plans Fashion Show

A fashion show will be presented tomorrow by the seventh grade homemaking class. Each class will have a different theme for its show. Each girl will model the fashion she made the previous semester.

After homemaking classes will prepare the refreshments.

Walter Wasielewski's seventh grade woodworking shops are making pump lamps. When they are finished, they then shellac them.

Eighth grade pupils are making pretzel men. They insert dowels which are finished, and then paint them.

Henry Smulak's seventh grade metal shop pupils are working on spice shelves, tin cups, and tapered boxes, all of which require soldering. The tapered boxes also require rivets. His eighth grade pupils are making fagnoni.

Robert Brackstone, the assistant principal of Barnum Jr. High, has a new baby girl. She was born February 18. Her name is Debra Ann.

LILLIAN CLAWSON'S seventh grade art classes are beginning to weave on small hand looms. They are starting with small items. The emphasis is on interesting designs. Later they will make place mats, purses, etc.

The student in electronic shop are now through with a group of projects, including: making magnets, relays, wire, toaster, and electric motors. They are learning the proper way to handle tools used in electrical work.

IN THE MECHANICAL drawing classes the boys started drawing some projects such as the block, step block, block washer, mortar and term. Some of the projects they have recently completed are the same plate, paper knife, bracelet and tapered box.

These were due March 7, and now they will have some tests on mechanical drawing.

Verona Smulak graduated from University of Michigan in June 1954 with a B.S. degree. Miss Verona Smulak is a math teacher at Barnum. She also helps with the drama club. She was the assistant director of the play, "Tom Sawyer". She is interested in dramatics. Her home town is Bay City, Michigan.

Bloomfield Music Department Active

With the week of March 20 drawing near, the music department of Bloomfield Hills High School is very active. The schedule for that week includes many events in which the choir and instrumental departments will participate.

Saturday, March 19 will begin the whirl with Bloomfield Hills participating in the Vocal Solo and Ensemble Festival at Pontiac. On Tuesday, March 22, the choir will enter the State District Choral Festival at Royal Oak and on Friday of the same week the Mixed Choir will appear at the Oakland County Teachers Institute in Birmingham.

Then, as the tension mounts and last minute preparations are completed on the evening of Friday, March 25 at 8:30 p.m. in the Cranbrook auditorium, the Bloomfield Hills High School Choir will present its annual Spring Concert.

On the program will be hits from "Roberta" plus such favorites as "While Hearts Are Singing", "April Showers", "Easter Parade" and sacred selections like "God So Loved the World", "O Blessed Jesus", and "The Palms". Featured soloists will be Mary Lou Fuller, Donald Brown, Millicent Fleming and Pete Lewis.

Also appearing will be The "Jills", girls actlet who made their initial TV appearance this winter, as well as the Girls Glee Club and the Mixed Choir. The public is cordially invited to attend.

And as the week draws to a close two boys from Bloomfield Hills, Pete Lewis and Art Plaxton, will compete in the State Finals of the Michigan District Instrumental Solo and Ensemble Festival at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Year Book Sales Break Records

By Marilee Podlesak

Breaking all previous sales records, the 1955 Piper ordered 1550 annually to be distributed to subscribers late in May.

Casting three dollars this year, the book will have a white cover and each purchaser's own name will be inscribed on the cover in black.

Nearly 100 per cent seniors purchased their yearbooks with class dues as early as last November.

Advertisers wanting copies were asked to purchase books this year giving the staff about 30 additional sales.

Free Pipers were given several lucky students. For selecting just the right apple in the fruit machine and just the right candy bar at the candy counter Mike Koskinen and Wayne Groggie will get 1955 Pipers without cost.

Eleven annuals were ordered for last year's Piper staff heads. Also working hard was Carl Toltz, who got one for his help on the senior memory record.

The Miss and Mr. Personality contest during the campaign was won by Betty Quillian and Bob Goldsmith who will also be awarded free copies of the yearbook.

Freshman Martha Monaghan, top salesman of the campaign, is another who will receive a free Piper. Other top salesmen were

The Future nurses' club purchased a Piper for Kyung Jun Uk, Korean orphan adopted by the high school through the club.

The 1955 Piper sales staff included Mable Harabedian, assistant manager; Marilee Podlesak, business manager; Kiffin James, Jay Lewis, and Bill Neffman in addition to 17 honored salesmen.
