South Pacific Scene Of Movie at BHS

Movies of the South Pacific were shown to high school English classes last Thursday and Friday by Dwight Long, noted motion picture photographer.
In the United States Navy during the war, Mr. Long showed color films of submarine warfare, Pacific islands, and a world cruise taken in a 32 foot boat. Among the islands visited was Tahiti, scene of "Mutiny on the Bounty".
The lecture-movie combination was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Swimming Classes At Barnum Pool

The Birmingham Recreation Board announces that there are a few openings for girls of the elementary school age who wish to join the last beginning swimming series at the Barnum pool.
Classes are being held on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12:00 noon.
Mothers may complete arrangements by calling the Recreation department at the Board of Education. Classes are limited to 26 swimmers each.

Washington Tour Group in Meeting

The 1955 Washington group recently had its third meeting. Roommates were chosen by each member of the group. Many interesting and enjoyable rights were suggested by E. A. Hubbard, director, for the members to plan their free morning and night.
Mr. Hubbard then explained the rules of the trip and said that parents and members will be asked to attend a joint meeting April 5.

Speech Contests Begin at BHS

School contests in competitive speech took place this week at Birmingham high school.
The five contests were open to students taking courses in contest speech. They included humorous reading, dramatic reading, extemporaneous speaking, required of all contest speech students; declamation, the interpretation of a well known speech by freshmen and sophomores, and original oration.
Two winners will be chosen in each contest to represent Birmingham at the district finals at Royal Oak March 22.
Birmingham, Royal Oak and Mt. Clemens will be represented at the district finals.

Pep Club Girls Planning Banquet

The first Pep club banquet will be March 17 in the Maple room. On hand will be 125 girls, known in basketball and football crowds as enthusiastic girls dressed in white blouses and blue skirts seated together and cheering at every Maple game.
General chairman is Ethel Boehm. Heading the many committees are Denise Gullmet, menu; Helen Black, programs; Nancy Olsen, Sue Tabor, decorations; B. Shimmick, Marie Lindquist, place cards.

Baldwin Friends End 6th Program Series March 14

Friends of Baldwin public library will bring their sixth annual program series to a close Monday, March 14, with a musical program in the library auditorium at 8:45 p.m.
Robert Bates, music director at Cranbrook, will present members of the Kingwood and Cranbrook glee clubs in selections from their recent production, "Yeoman of the Guard", and "The Beggar's Opera".
David Cerone, talented young

Cranbrook violinist and protégé of Mischa Mischakoff, also will be heard.
Charles B. Kass, Friends president, said a brief business meeting prior to the program would feature the presentation of the slate of new directors.
