

Whirl of Events for Student Set

By FRAN MAIER

Among the 51 student nurses at Grace Hospital School of Nursing who formally received their caps at an impressive ceremony Monday evening were Kathleen Blackwood and Marcia Elaine Hirschfeld.

Capping marks the completion of the first six months of basic education in the three-year program, and the beginning of studies pertaining to medical and surgical patient care.

Miss Blackwood and Miss Hirschfeld entered the school last mid-September and are members of the class of '57. Kathleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Blackwood of Dunblaine, Southfield township, and Marcia's parents are the Herbert H. Hirschfelds of Bretby avenue. Each student dressed in pink uniform with white kerchief and apron, held a lighted candle symbolic of Florence Nightingale and her lamp, as Miss Mildred McFerren, nursing school director conferred the caps.

Song by the Student Nurse Glee club and recitation of the Nightingale Pledge were other facets of the program.

Named to Dean's List

Five students from the Birmingham area have been named this semester to the dean's list for excellence in scholarship at Amherst college, Amherst, Mass. All are seniors, and to make the dean's list in their senior year, each had to earn an average of at least 84 in their course of work.

They are Gordon M. Forbes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Forbes of Buckingham road; Paul Penfield, Jr., the son of the Paul Penfields of Lakeside; and Stephen R. Yarnall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Yarnall of Suffield road. They are members of Beta Theta Phi, Theta Xi and Phi Alpha Psi fraternities, respectively.

At Hollins college, Va., Susan Kaegi made the dean's list for her high scholastic record. She is also a senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Kaegi of Wadlington road.

MSC Graduates

Degrees will be conferred upon three local boys at winter term commencement exercises at 8 p.m., today, at Michigan State college.

Candidates for undergraduate degrees are Craig Ackerman, son of Mrs. J. R. Ackerman of Colonial court; Carl J. Beuthien, son of the Carl Beuthiens of Yorkshire; and Charles Frederick, son of the C. W. Fredericks of Pilgrim. Craig majored in economics, Carl in general business and Charles in art.

Pledges Sorority

Mary Lou Gregory, senior at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, has been initiated into Pi Sigma Alpha, the national political science honorary. She is also a senior and Mr. and Mrs. Amos F. Gregory, 1216 Dorchester road.

It's an Educational Trip

Dorothy Moore and Eleanor Hauser, members of the junior class at Kingswood will be trekking eastward Wednesday night. They will spend a day at each—Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Wellesley, Radcliffe and Connecticut college for women, and also plan to do some sight-seeing in New England before returning to Michigan.

Florida Vacationers

A frequent visitor at the French House restaurant, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; has been Mrs. Jean Greene of Lake Parke drive, where she dined on authentic food and in a delightful French atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Blair Barleigh of Glenary circle, Bloomfield village, have joined other seasonal vacationers, and are headquartered at the 'Trade Winds hotel in Ft. Lauderdale.

State Day Program

Delta Zeta collegiate and alumnae members will convene Saturday at Michigan State college's Kellogg Center for a State Day. Members of the four active chapters in the state, alumnae representatives from five chartered groups and six organizing groups will be present.

Mrs. Russell T. Costello of Pine Lake drive, national president, and Mrs. Charles J. Bednar, director of public relations, will greet the assembly.

The morning program will be in the form of a workshop with something for pledges, actives and alumnae. Personal and chapter awards will be made at the luncheon.

Speaker of the day will be James Dennison, administrative assistant to the president of MSC, whose subject will be "A Sorority's Place in the Public Relations Program of a University."

Local women attending will be Mrs. George Betker, Mrs. Robert Kerley, Mrs. Wilbur Sears, Mrs. Earl P. Long, Mrs. Forbes Hascall, Mrs. Winifred Hinman and Mrs. Donald Somers.

See Musical Hit

Mr. and Mrs. Norris J. Prior of Waycross road attended a performance of the new hit musical "Fanny," starring Ezio Pinza and Walter Slezak, while visiting in New York City, N. Y.

Travel Abroad

Leaving on March 30th for a tour of France, Spain, Italy and Switzerland will be Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Brown of Charing Cross road. Their trip abroad will be made on the Queen Mary and their return trip, leaving London on May 15, will be on the Queen Elizabeth.

Merry Music Makers Talk Over May Plans

Junior counselor of the Birmingham concert and the convention of Junham Musicales, Mrs. D. L. Tate was guest at the Sunday Merry Music Makers at the Hamilton avenue home of Donna McRoy.

Pictures of MMM members were taken for their scrap book by Mrs. Walter Butler. The group discussed the spring
