Buffet Dinner to Feature Atmosphere of Mardi Gras

Dinner guests of the William R. Ritchey of Strathmore road next Sunday evening will be entertained in a style reminiscent of old New Orleans.

The Ritcheys have just returned home after two weeks spent soaking up the Mardi Gras atmosphere and plan to bring the famous spring festival to life again with buffet dishes like those that have made Antoine's famous the world around.

During the evening, Ritchey will also show colored slides taken during their trip of the bayous, southern plantations and street scenes and several Mardi Gras shows.

Mrs. Ritchey says that the Grand Ball at the Mardi Gras, which she and her husband attended as guests of the Duke of the Box was one of the most spectacular and colorful events she has ever seen.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP
 Mrs. Donald Mills, leader of a new Girl Scout Troop, will have a group of 15 fifth graders at her home on Romney road for their fourth meeting. Four is a magic number in this case because the group must meet four times before it is recognized as an official unit. After that the troop will receive its number.

Mrs. Ladd Orr of Bolingbroke road spent the weekend in Lansing visiting her son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ross, who is an architect, is employed there by the state.

The Mark L. Hazermans are entertaining dinner guests Saturday evening in their home on Butternut Hill drive.

The little girls are daughters of the Worthly's son, who lives in Royal Oak. Worthly is owner of the service station at Hunter and Maple.

We Heard It Said By:

FRANK WHITNEY, Athletic director, Birmingham schools: "Our police department deserves a great deal of praise for the way traffic was handled at our football and basketball games. Visitors from fifteen communities have had a chance to evaluate our ways of conducting night athletic events and all have been pleased with the traffic situation. The regular and auxiliary police have done a terrific job."

Mrs. Katherine Ramsey
 Mother of five says, "Our hospital bills aren't the problem they could be!"

"A family the size of ours can't avoid hospital bills," says Mrs. Ramsey, of Berkley, Michigan. That's the reason we wouldn't have anything but Blue Cross. I don't know of any other protection plan, so reasonably priced, that gives you all the basic hospital services you need—rather than fixed cash benefits, like you get with other plans. When my last baby was born, our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract gave me hospital service worth almost $1,000—and I didn't have to pay a cent. It was certainly small in contrast with the amount Blue Cross—Blue Shield covered for me."

Why take the 1 in 3 chance that your family will have a hospital and doctor bill within your... when for reasonable cost, you can have the wonderful security of Blue Cross—Blue Shield, Michigan's only state-wide, non-profit protection plan.

Find out how you can have low-cost protection. A company with as few as 5 employees may qualify as a group. Today, call or write: Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Mr. Gordon Cox, Huron Center, 1058 W. Huron Street, Pontiac, Michigan.
