Small Fry in Social Whirl Of Birthday Celebrations

Four birthday parties for youngsters in the community, complete with traditional ice cream, cake and gifts have kept the children and their parents in a pleasant dither recently.

St. Patrick's Day was also the third birthday of little Carla Sue Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Wetherly road and Freddie Rhine and Billy and Carla Sue had her playmates over for ice cream and cake. Guests were Robbie and Lannie Harnden, Ronnie Musty and Margaret Ann Harley.

On Saturday afternoon Chuck Post, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Post, celebrated his fourth birthday. There were movies for the children after cake and gifts. Boys invited were Andy Bell, Freddie Hindoff, Mike Reynolds, Steve Shannon, Peter McNamee, Danny Taggart, Robbie Tassie, Jeff Latta. Little girl guests were Susie Capinola, Judy Fagan, Kathleen and Hungenford and Karen Gullberg. The party was held in the Post home on Verona circle.

Janet Custance blew her three candles out with one big puff Saturday evening when she celebrated her birthday at a family dinner. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Custance and of course big sister Joan, was on hand to sing Happy Birthday too. They all live on Arlington.

The Frank A. O'Donnell home on Locherle rang with the sound of excited boys and girls Saturday afternoon when the family celebrated her fifth birthday with the help of her brother, Frank, and

MEMBERS OF THE SIOUX, Cheyenne and Ottawa YMCA Indian Guide Tribes gathered last week at the YMCA longhouse pose with Chief of the Longhouse, Bald Eagle, in Edwin F. Kirbert, (third from right), executive secretary of the YMCA. Fifth from the right is chief of the Sioux tribe, Edward J. Doffer of 1825

All parents are invited to visit their children's classrooms from 7 to 8 o'clock and to visit with the teachers.

More than 300 guests were served at the spaghetti dinner sponsored by the St. Gerard Guild of the Altar society of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs so the guild conducted the affair a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Osterling of Auburn drive entertained a few of their neighbors Friday evening at bridge. Those making up the three tables were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marchetti, Mr. and Mrs. Don Henock, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Danville, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stapleton and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gault.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bell opened their home on Auburn Drive to their monthly duplicate bridge club.

Mrs. Russell Post was hostess at her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS

Last week four families were welcomed into our section of Beverly Hills and this week there are eight newcomers to introduce.

Over on Beverly road at 16199 to be exact, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Damiani and their two children, David, and Linda, 2, have taken up residence. They moved here from Detroit. Damiani is employed by the Jerry Weik Co. Although he enjoys sports, especially bowling and golf, Damiani has found little time for either this past year for he has been taking a Michigan University extension course in business administration.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Burkhardt, the new occupants at 17170 Kinross, are also former Detroiters. Burkhardt is with the engineering division of Chrysler. With the days getting longer he is already checking over his fishing gear hopefully.

On Wetherby there is another new family at 16231, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin K. Hansen who moved here from Berkeley. The Hansens have one daughter Barbara, who is 14 and an eighth grade student at Barham.

Hansen, who is purchasing agent for General Motors' technical center, places hunting and fishing at the head of his list of hobbies. Barbara, a Girl Scout, is remaining in Troop 47 in Berkeley.

Most of the families coming to East Beverly have been from Detroit or Royal Oak or Berkley but once in a while newcomers arrive out of state, like Mr. and Mrs. Don Ringard who came here from Colorado Springs, Colorado. The Ringard family includes a 10-year-old daughter, Sally, and a 12-year-old son, Don, both of whom are attending Baldwin school. Don has already joined Mr. Trovbridge's Boy Scout troop.

Ringard, a graduate of Colorado college, was a member of its hockey team and hopes to be able to play next winter with his son.

Mrs. Ringard is attending the Business Institute in Pontiac.

Right next door to the Ringards are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Rees, new arrivals from Detroit. Rees is a salesman for Continental Coffee and Mrs. Rees is employed by General Motors corporation. They are members of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rees are golf enthusiasts and enjoy all summer activities with emphasis on swimming. Rees is a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Becker moved into the Roger Page house at 32300 Sheridan. They have a 10-month old son, Peter, and a three-year old daughter, Constance. Mrs. Becker is an insurance broker and Gibson, Mrs. James Moulton, Mrs. a graduate of Northwestern, Mrs. Wilson Butler, Mrs. Ernest Martin, Becker is an alumnae of Mt. Holyoke college. Painting and photography are hobbies of the Beckers. Mrs. Ernest Bahner, Mrs. Donald and their youngsters usually serve Custance, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs.

Maryland. Y Indian Guides is a program to foster companionship between father and son. Dads and sons interested in the program are invited to the next meeting to be held March 31 at 7 p.m. at 100 E. Lincoln. Call the YMCA for full details. (Eccentric Photo)

Morning Coffee

Mrs. Art Laffoon asked a few neighbors to her home on Arlington Tuesday morning for coffee and the opportunity to meet Mrs. Becker. Those who gathered for a friendly chat with their new neighbor were Mrs. Jack Mead, Mrs. 10-month old son, Peter, and a three-year old daughter, Constance. Mrs. Becker is an insurance broker and Gibson, Mrs. James Moulton, Mrs. a graduate of Northwestern, Mrs. Wilson Butler, Mrs. Ernest Martin, Becker is an alumnae of Mt. Holyoke college. Painting and photography are hobbies of the Beckers. Mrs. Ernest Bahner, Mrs. Donald and their youngsters usually serve Custance, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs.

Mrs. Alice Papke says she is pleased with her new home at 17241 Kinross and is kept very busy making it a home. Mrs. Papke is also a new parishioner at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeLoreto moved into their new home at 18605 Labadie recently. Mrs. DeLoreto graduated from Villa Marie college in Erie, Pa., her home town.
