PTA Scores Hit with Show, 'Surprise of a Lifetime'

"It's Wonderful," sung by Mrs. Don Aiken, summed up the reaction of the audience to the musical review, "Surprise of a Lifetime," staged and performed by members of the Walnut Lake PTA on Monday, March 14.

Guests reported they were delighted with the excellent choice of the singing, dancing and jokes, colorful costumes and set designs and said the financial production showed hard work by the cast and backstage workers.

Surprise theme of the show was the honor paid to Claude Whitmer, a Walnut Lake resident from birth and a leader in community affairs. Whitmer was born in the former Whitmer farm, which was settled by his father in 1859, and is now known as Suburban-Home. Whitmer and Mrs. Whitmer have three sons, Walter, who lives on Inkster road; Hugh, who makes his home with his parents, and Kenneth, a junior at Michigan State college.

Troy Man-Guilty

Roy E. Hankins, 32, of 4009 Livernois, Troy township, pleaded guilty to breaking and entering the Main Theater in Royal Oak, Feb. 7, when he appeared before Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick last week. Hartwick set sentencing for March 28. Hankins, unable to furnish a $5,000 bond, is being held in Oakland County jail.
