

Snow Statue Wins Winter Fair Honors

BLM. VILLAGE—J. Bradford Hubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest B. Hubert of 439 Tibbury, won second prize with a snow statue which he designed for his dormitory during the recent Winter Carnival at Dartmouth College. Hubert, a graduate of Birmingham High School, is in his first year at the New Hampshire college. His winning display was one of 20 prepared by students.

Bloomfield PTA Name Officers

The nominating committee of the Bloomfield Village PTA will present a slate of officers for 1955 and hold nominations at the regular meeting in the school on Monday, March 7, according to president Mrs. Howard Maudel of Overhill drive. After the business meeting a movie on family adjustments, "The Roots of Happiness" will be shown.

EXCHANGE CLUB planners met recently for lunch to set up final details of their March 26 street sale of toothbrushes. In the front row are R. C. Chissus, J. H. Mattison, H. B. Ritze and general chairman, Harry Aten. J. M. Jacobs, D. A. McGaffey, club president, W. C. Scott and R. J. Wilson, publicity chairman, make up the back row. Proceeds of the sale will establish a "Youth Activity Fund" which will help finance Camp Oakland, an in-county establishment for Oakland county's underprivileged boys and girls under 14 years of age. Tickets now being sold by Exchanges may be redeemed for a toothbrush on the day of the sale.
