

Pink Bouquets Accent Whiting-Gordon Rites

Pale pink roses and snapdragons filled the altar vases and formed aisle bouquets at Christ Church Cranbrook for the marriage of Clara Margaret Gordon and Henry Whiting, Jr., Saturday evening.

The bride descended the aisle in a regal gown of antique Elizabethan satin in a soft seed pearl shade fashioned on the long Versailles line of bodice, very snug of fit and fastened with tiny self covered buttons well below the hip-line.

MRS. HENRY WHITING, JR.

HONOR attendants were Nancy Elizabeth Trumbull and Mrs. Roger Aten, sister of the groom, maid and matron, respectively. They carried small round bouquets of garnet roses and camellia foliage.

Peter Whiting of Trinity college served as best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry of Lake Park drive.

SEATING the guests were Macaulay Whiting of Midland, I. J. John W. Eden of Colorado, Calif., John M. Stuel of Peru, Vt., Howard Leisinger, Jr. of Huron, Mich., Dr. George F. Cahill, Jr. of Westley, Mass., Severus Bonnie of Louisville, Ky., and Roger Aten of Birmingham.

cut with deep pleated long torso and short sleeves with small folds. AMERICAN Beauty roses in silver wire centers on silver stands and Woodwark trees formed the background for the receiving line at Blountfield Hills Country club. The same roses with matching satin leaves were used throughout the club.

Her hat was of coral velvet. One of four guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Hoover and Mrs. Albert Robinson, both of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. James R. Park of Oxford, Miss.; Mrs. M. and Mrs. C. H. Hollister of Cleveland Heights, Ohio; Frank Lush of Cudahy, Wis.; Mrs. J. S. Nelson of Whittier, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Gerard of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Park of East of New York, N. Y.; Mrs. A. E. U. U. Gicht of Amber, Miss.; Merrill Smith of Buffalo, N. Y.

Leads State Descendants of Colonists

Mrs. William H. DeGraff of Fairfax, state president of the Michigan Society, Daughters of Colonial Wars, will preside at the society's spring luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Park-Shelton hotel in Detroit.

chapter, and was president from 1941 to 43. She also belongs to the Daughters of American Colonists, and the Society of Mayflower Descendants, another state unit. Neither that, nor the D of CW have local units in this area.

OTHER STATE OFFICERS participating in the annual business session following a noon luncheon, will be Mrs. Robert Vint, of Lathrup, first vice-president, and Mrs. J. A. Schmidt, treasurer.

AMONG THOSE PLANNING the joint fashion show for the Cranbrook Music Guild and Detroit Symphony orchestra are Mrs. John E. Coulter, Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. John W. Sanders and Mrs. Robert L. Graham, Guild members.

EARLY COMERS to the country, which qualify her for membership in the groups, were Samuel Pratt, who fought in the French and Indian Wars; Degray Priest, a passenger on the Mayflower, and Francis Coombs, an early colonist. Photo-stating of records in a family Bible, is a prayer undertaken by the Colonial Wars group.

Speaker will be Judge Fletcher L. Regton, of Royal Oak seeking to keep Michigan's historical references.

Suburban Scene

Harlequin Groups' Four Dances a Year Starts on March 23

By FRAN MAIER

Dances four times a year are being planned by the Harlequin club, a group of 70 couples.

The March 23 event, according to Mr. and Mrs. Donald V. Kogge, presidents, will be at Glen Oaks Country club with Dick Mills' orchestra coming from Detroit to provide music.

December, June and September events are planned, on last Saturday of the month except for the Christmas season dance. Other officers are The Wayne Lumley, vice-presidents, the Harold L. Voglers, secretaries, and the Robert K. Murrays, treasurers.

On a board for the group, for which there is a membership waiting list, are the Richard L. Havilands, the Bruce M. Maynards, the Ralph Wengers, and the Robert E. Agnewes.

Fashion Parade

The "elongated" look is being stressed in the fashion world of today. These styles will be modeled by members of the J. L. Hudson's Teen Panel in the fashion parade "Look Pretty" in its Spring.

Anne Coughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Coughlin of Echo road, Bloomfield township, is one of the 30 members of the panel. She is a sophomore at Kingswood School in Cranbrook.

The show is being presented in cooperation with 17 magazines, with Frankie Hodges of New York and Marie Kennedy, youth advisor for Hudsons. Two shows, at 1 and 3 o'clock, are scheduled for Saturday, March 5, on the 19th floor of Hudson's downtown store.

ANNE

Florida-Mexico Travelers

Joining James H. O. Page at their apartment in Grandville, Mrs. Page and their infant daughter, Molly Gorham, arrived from Florida last week. They had spent six weeks in Fort Lauderdale with Mrs. Page's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gould, former Birmingham residents.

Vacationing at the Hotel Del Prado in Mexico City, Mexico, are Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Basford, of Lake Park drive.

Key Winner

Carlve A. Scott has been awarded an organization key by Rhode Island School of Design's undergraduate drama activity in recognition of "constant and significant service in the college's drama program." The award was made last week following the final performance of the RISD Theatre's presentation of "Jacobowski and the Colonel."

A graduate of Birmingham high school, Miss Scott is a senior candidate for a bachelor of fine arts degree in interior design. Her parents are the W. Carleton Scotts of Lane Lake road, Bloomfield township.

Family Addition

Since the Robert C. Boyers, Mrs. Charles J. Boyer, and Judith Boyer moved to 851 Fox Run drive, another Boyer, Patricia Ann, has joined the family. The Robert Boyers' daughter was born Feb. 22. The family moved here from Highland Park.

Merry-go-Round Favors

A cloth shaped cake centered the party table Saturday when five-year-old Barbara Sonnenschein celebrated her birthday with 12 playmates. Individual merry-go-round favors, topped with umbrellas and animals hanging from ribbons, were made by Barbara's mother for her guests.

After the party lunch, the wide-eyed youngsters gathered in a circle to watch Mike Kelly entertain with the dummy "Pat." Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sonnenschein, 16069 Buckingham.

Sings Ballads At Magnolia

American folk songs sung by a hobbyist in the ballad field will be featured at Magnolia Community club's meeting March 7 at Magnolia school in Southfield township.

Pi Beta Phi Club Elects Officers

New officers of Bloomfield Hills alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi will be elected at the Baldwin club, home of Mrs. Charles B. W. Ald-

Hard or Easy, Program Credited to Club Staff

By FRAN MAIER

The work of a program chairman can be difficult or easy, largely through the amount of cooperation she gets from club members, according to Mrs. F. Gordon Davis, program chairman for the Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

MRS. DAVIS says she seldom gets a refusal when she asks for help. She says of herself, "I am a member in vital to the organization." At the beginning of the year she made a survey of the members for each special program. Her survey is a gratifying and profitable "breakdown" of the club members.

MRS. DAVIS is chairman of planning the special for the March 19th program, an outdoor picnic at the Lake Park Country Club. An article and pictures appearing in Holiday magazine featured Mrs. Davis as the speaker.

FOR THIS particular evening meeting which is the annual guest husband program, a dining committee was appointed. This includes contacting every member of the club as headed by Mrs. George Limb, vice-president.

Localites Enter Sororities, Attend Yale J-Prom, State Term-Party

From parties to formal proms, local and national sorority initiations are topping the news from college campuses in Birmingham area, students are enrolled.

From Denison university at Granville, O., comes news that Susan Allen, Jean Flores, Mary Abbott, Terry and Martha Sharpe's have become active in sororities.

MRS. DONALD R. WILSON, places her small son, Donald R., Jr., on a pony saddle in the new Western shop she opened Feb. 19 in Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Wilson writes that "Peggy's Western Shop" aims to be Florida's most complete western riding equipment and apparel shop. She returned last December, after staying with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Wilson of River-side in Beverly Hills, and makes her home in the suburban Jacksonville home she and her husband acquired before his death in a jet crash in the ocean off Cuba last May. The shop features such displays as a rail fence enclosing 70-play windows, and numerous stands for elaborate saddles.

Program chairman for the Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. Mrs. Davis reacts, "My work is a pleasure and the help of my fellow members is a joy."

OTHER INTERESTS of Mrs. Davis are working with groups of the First Presbyterian church and the University of Michigan club scholarship work. She is the mother of two girls, Martin, 14, a sophomore at Birmingham High, and Margaret 19, a freshman at the University of Michigan, who last week was initiated into her mother's sorority, Alpha Omicron Pi.

MRS. F. GORDON DAVIS. A shelf reserved for garden books. (Eccentric Photo)

HONORS IN MUSIC

Barbara Lee Kilson, a member of the Min Heu, a national honor society, Barbara Lee, the daughter of the Robert C. Gilson of Lathrup, was initiated into the University of Michigan chapter recently.

YALE JUNIOR PROM IS ON

She is a senior in the U.M. music school and resides in Martha Coon's apartment.

YALE JUNIOR PROM IS ON

Two local students at Michigan State college were paired off for the dinner dance staged by Delta Sigma Epsilon there.

YALE JUNIOR PROM IS ON

Two local students at Michigan State college were paired off for the dinner dance staged by Delta Sigma Epsilon there.

YALE JUNIOR PROM IS ON

Two local students at Michigan State college were paired off for the dinner dance staged by Delta Sigma Epsilon there.