Song Writer Promotes Her Tunes While in California

Mrs. Walter O. Stecker of Wing Lake road, who returned last weekend from a six week visit in California is understandably excited about contacts she made there that may lead to the publication of one of her songs. Mrs. Stecker, who has had some success with her hobby of song-writing, visited at the home of her twin sister and her sister's husband, Dr. and Mrs. William Wallace of Riverside, Calif.

While in Palm Springs, Mrs. Stecker was the guest of lyricist Hal Adamson, who arranged for her to meet Edie MacLary at Robins Music Corporation. The company orchestrated and rehearsed one of her songs, "My Sugar Said Yes" on a trial basis.

Kitty White, a rising singing star, also made several demonstration recordings of Mrs. Stecker's compositions for presentation through other channels. The whole project, Mrs. Stecker reports, gave her and her sister a great deal of excitement, and she is keeping her fingers crossed that something might come of it all.

SEES SIGHTS
During her visit Mrs. Stecker

the prizes were doll accessories with one outstanding prize, the record, "Davey Crockett."

Members of the Plymouth women's club are in for a treat Friday, March 4 when Mrs. Harvey Sanderson of Thurber road will give three monologues during the meeting. Mrs. Sanderson's selections will be, "Twelfth Street Super-market," "Joint Return," and "Tuesday Musical Morning."

LINEN SHOWER

A linen shower is being given March 4, for Jane Manning, Spanish teacher at Vaughan school. Miss Manning will marry David North, student at the University of Michigan on April 1.

This party will be held at the home of Mrs. John H. Little, Franklin road, and co-hostess is Mrs. David Crocker, Hickory Grove road. There will be six guests, mothers of the seventh graders in Miss Manning's home room at school. Lunch, refreshments, dessert and coffee will be served from a table decorated with a floral piece built around a miniature bride and groom.

Back from two weeks in Jamaica, the James Wrights of Wing Lake road report that they spent most of their time on the beach. Their round trip was made by air and they stayed at the Casablanca hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knight, Wing Lake road were in Jamaica at the same time and joined the Wrights on several occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richter, North Warrington, had a family dinner party for their two sons who celebrated birthdays this month. Glen was 3 on Feb. 21 and LaMonte was 7 on Feb. 27.

VISIT FLORIDA
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Packard of Carey, Maine, recently returned from a trip to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. They visited Packard's father at his home in Rockland, Maine, who spends his winters at Winter Haven and then went on to Crystal River and stayed at Paradise Inn.

The Packards did some bass fishing on Crystal River and enjoyed the experience of having their catch cooked on shore by the guide.

The South American dance group, organized last fall met Sunday evening at Paradise Inn. The Daniel Packards, Carey Lane, The seven couples in the group have records of their music lessons.

In the group are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. H. Surme, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gould, Mr. and Mrs. James Grissom and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Packard.

P.T.O. Plans Summer Program of Play
At the Wing Lake school P.T.O. meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Springer of Franklin road, it was decided to devote the March meeting to a program on summer vacation.

William McGuire, sixth grade teacher and director of the organized summer play program for children from kindergarten through the sixth grade, will discuss his plans.

Members will also be asked for questions to be submitted to Dr. Barathal, psychologist at Wayne university, who will be the April speaker. Dr. Barathal plans to base his talk on these questions.
