250 Hear PTA Talk on Mental Health in Schools

Two hundred and fifty parents and teachers heard a talk on "Mental Health in Our Schools" by Mrs. Reba Cope, a visiting teacher from the Child Service department, at the PTA meeting on Feb. 23.

After the showing of a film called "Roads of Happiness", discussion and a question-answer period followed, and reports were made.

The doctors, Marjorie and Maurice Howlett, 1870 Riverside drive had as guest the last ten days, Mrs. Howlett's sister, Mrs. George Whyte of Montreal. Whyte came down from Canada for the weekend, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Whitmer, 1840 Riverside drive joined the Howletts and Whytes for a lobster dinner Saturday night.

MEET TO SEW

The West Beverly Sewing group will meet Tuesday, March 8, at the home of Mrs. Harry Hyvonen, 32405 Mayfair. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Maynard Beukema of 18240 Devonshire and Mrs. Floyd Walters, 18628 Devonshire.

Their charter was presented when the Cub Scouts met Feb. 24 at Beverly school. The nominating committee's report was accepted and the following officers were named: Cub-Master, Dr. H. C. Fairbanks; Committee chairman, Rocky Craig; and Park Mother, Margaret Vibbert.

Reports from Cub Pack B-21 show February to have been a very busy month. Den 1 entertained Den 10 at one of their meetings, and each Den 1 Cub gave a short talk about some famous man born in February or about the Boy Scouts' forty-fifth anniversary in February.

Den 2 visited the Birmingham Eccentric office where Mr. W. F. Zark, Sports and School Editor of the paper, explained photographic reproduction and linotype operation, and then took the cubs on a tour of the press room where they saw the current issue of the Eccentric rolling off the presses.

Den 4 visited the Naval Air station at Grosse Ile and also saw the Andy Palmer collection of guns, at Military Inn. Den 5 enjoyed a trip, supervised by Mr. Decker, to the Model Railroaders club. Awards made during February will be announced next week.

All Cubs look forward to attending the Father and Son Banquet which will be held at the Community House Tuesday, March 8 at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Shephard, 18432 Riverside, entertained members of the St. John's Woods Study Club last Tuesday evening. The speaker, Mrs. Henry Wiedtke reviewed the book, "Forty Plus and Fancy Free" by Emily Kimbrough.

SWAP SHOP

Beverly School fourth graders learned some practical mathematics last week when they conducted a Swap Shop, with Gary Ashcraft as leader, in the school conference room. Pupils in Beverly's six grades brought toys, games, books and even bikes and then swapped those they no longer wanted for others they thought they could book-keeper, reported that 443 items were up for exchange or sale. Margaret Martin, Frank Jenks and Fred Nicholson made the signs for the walls and door.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Douglas who recently moved from 1903 Snowden ave., Detroit, are now living at 18574 Riverside. Douglas is General Appliance Sales manager of the Frigidair division of General Motors.

The newcomers have a married daughter, Mrs. Thomas Navin, Jr. and a son, Jack, who is attending Birmingham High school.
